The Compass

wants your poetry

- The Compass will again be running student poetry
- Due to space, poems should be 50 lines or less, though exceptions may be made for meritorious work.
- Typed manuscripts should be submitted to Johnson Hall Room 111 or Campus Box 815. Do not place your name on the manuscript attach a separate page that includes your name, phone number, major and class, and the title of the poem(s) submitted.
- Work not used may be considered for a later issue, or you may stop by the Compass Office to withdraw your work.
- The Compass reserves the right to edit work in cooperation with the poet.
- Experimental and Innovated Poetry is Welcome
