ELIZABETH CITY, NC- When the CIAA Weekly Honors were released this week, two names from the Viking gridiron were called.

Sophomore Malcolm Gaddy was named CIAA Defensive Back of the Week while Freshman Ken Mihaylor garnered CIAA Rookie of the Week honors.

Gaddy, a strong safety from Richmond, VA played an outstanding game for the Vikings in Saturday's loss at Livingstone. He recorded a game high 13 tackles (7 solo, 6 assisted) including one for a loss of four yards and a forced fumble. Amongst the Vikings, Gaddy is 8th in tackles averaging 4.0 per contest.

Mihaylor, a native of Park Forest, IL carried the duty of both punter and kicker for the Vikings and he more than answered the call. By the end of the competition, he had amassed 181 yards on 5 punts including 2 inside the twenty-yard line. His longest of the day was for 43 yards.

The Vikings will host Homecoming 2002 this Saturday as they take on the Falcons of Saint Augustine's College. Kickoff is scheduled for 2:00pm at Roebuck Stadium.

SECOND CIAA BOWLING EVENT CONCLUDES VSU EDGES LADY VIKINGS FOR EVENT WIN

ELIZABETH CITY, NC- Elizabeth City State University hosted the CIAA Eastern Division Bowling Event October 18-20 at the Albemarle Lanes in Elizabeth City, NC. This marks the second divisional event of the 2002 Bowling Season.

At the conclusion of the 3-day event, it was the Trojanettes of Virginia State prevailing with 28 points, edging the Lady Vikings who finished with 27. They were followed by Bowie State (23), Shaw (21), Virginia Union (11) and Saint Paul's (1).

North Carolina Central in Durham, NC hosted the CIAA Western Division.

The format consists of each inter-divisional school facing off in a two-game match using a 5-person team. Three event points are awarded for each game won concluding with 6 simultaneous baker games awarding points based on highest total pin fall (6 points-highest 1 point-lowest).

At the conclusion of team match play, ECSU and VSU were tied at 24 event points heading into the 6-game baker match. However it was the Lady Bears of Shaw University spoiling the Trojanette/Lady Viking showdown by placing first with a total pin fall of 834. They were followed by Bowie State with 827 while VSU settled for 3rd (818) giving them the one point victory over the Lady Vikings who finished 4th (804).

Next up will be the CIAA East/West Round-up hosted by Virginia State in Petersburg, VA October 25-27. The final Divisional Events will be November 1-3 in Raleigh and Fayetteville, NC followed by the 2002 CIAA Bowling Tournament November 18-19 in Winston-Salem, NC.

THE VIKINGS RIDE OUT ON TOP

The Elizabeth City State University football team was victorious in its last two games of the season and is looking toward the next season. The two wins put the Viking spirit into the homecoming game on Nov. 2, which ended with a 12-6 win over St. Augustine's College.

"My interception couldn't have come at a better time in the game," said defensive back, Malcolm Gaddy of a critical moment in the game.

Gaddy's interception shifted the momentum back into the hands of the Vikings and set up an offensive drive that ended up with Carlos Smith running into the end zone for a touchdown. This was Smith's first year as starting running back, and he wants to improve for the future.

"I thought I could have done a lot better. I require a lot out of myself," said Smith.

In the last game of the season the Vikings faced a well-known Winston-Salem State University team who has won two CIAA Championships in the last three years. But ECSU did not allow the past glories to discourage them from beating WSSU 14-15. Gaddy led the Deep Blue Sea defense in the WSSU game with seven tackles, six solo, one assisted and one sack for a loss and one interception. He had two consecutive games and received CIAA defensive player of the week honors.

Ken Mihaylor started the scoring drive for Vikings making the score 14-3, going into the half.

Calvin Hudgins followed up with a five-yard touchdown run early in the second half. The Deep Blue Sea stood tall when Jamon Rouse blocked a punt for a safety that sparked the Vikings comeback and made the score 14-12 WSSU.

Mihaylor's foot sealed the win with a 25-yard field goal. This last game started a winning streak that the Vikings will attempt to continue next season.
