

The News Argus.

VOLUME 2, NO. 3

WINSTON-SALEM STATE COLLEGE, WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

MAY, 1964

William J. Trent to Speak at Commencement

May Queen Mamie Lenoir (right) and her court, Delores Graham (left) and Geraldine Pete.

Mamie Lenoir Is May Queen

Dancing, music, tumbling, and stunts were the attractions of the annual May Day program given on campus May 15, 1964 at 7:30 p.m.

The theme of the program was "S. C. Frolicking." Outstanding features of the affair included the crowning of the May Queen by Dr. Kenneth R. Williams, performance by the modern dance group, and the Maypole dance. The crowning of the May Queen began the program. Mamie Lenoir, a senior from Canton, N. C. was recently crowned May Queen. On campus, she is a member of the S. N. E. A., Sunday school and dormitory council. Her major is elementary education. "I was happy, but surprised to find out that I had won," she said. "It has been a day to remember."

Members of her court are seniors Delores Graham, Dollye Kendall, and Geraldine Pete.

An elementary education major Miss Graham is a native of Winston-Salem, N. C., and Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

Miss Kendall, a native of Albermarle, N. C., is a music major. She is pianist for the choir, and serves in many organizations.

A participant in many activities on campus, Miss Pete is a native of Greenwood, Florida. Her major is elementary education, also.

The modern dance group made their first public debut for the year. They performed to one number entitled "Concertina" with music furnished by the band. Other numbers that they danced to included Taboo, Sweet and Lovely, Tchaikowsky's Concerto No. 1, Get the Money, and Magnificent Seven.

Two members of the group, Sonja Neely and Connie Cheek, performed to "Walk on the Wild Side."

Marty Robinson was narrator for the occasion. Program directors were Miss V. B. Brown and Miss M. R. McIver.

Modern dynamic physical fitness activities were held. Other activities included in the program were: Fundamental Rhythm Class and Social Dancing—Seven Steps, Polka for Three, La Cucaracha, Kolo, Ramba and Tango.

Rollicking Raggety Anns and Johns — stunts, tumbling, pyramid building, and advanced trampoline.

The program was highlighted by a familiar symbol, the Maypole dance.

Thomas R. Turner

(Continued on Page Four)

200 Seniors To Be Graduated Tuesday, May 26

Betty Lawrence

The school year has almost come to an end. For many it will be the end of four years of hard work and study. Yes, the seniors are now looking forward to beginning their activities the week of May 18-26 which is designated as Senior Week.

During this time much energy of the seniors will be spent practicing for the day they have dreamed of for four years, Tuesday, May 26. At this time, approximately 200 seniors will receive degrees.

Sunday afternoon, May 24, the annual Baccalaureate ceremony will take place. Scheduled to speak at this time is Dr. Cornell Everette Talley. He is the pastor of the New Light Baptist Church of Detroit, Mich. He received his education at Morehouse College and the University of Chicago Graduate School of Religion.

He is a member of the Committee of Management of the YMCA, Board of the Urban League, Board of the NAACP, Board of the Urban Owl Taxi Cab Company and President of the Presidents of the Brotherhood Memorial Park. Talley also has been appointed to the Governor's Commission on Higher Education and a member of the Board of the Park General Hospital. In 1947 he was invited to run on the Republican ticket as a candidate for City Council.

Commencement day will be the climax to a week which the seniors will never forget. The program will be held Tuesday, May 26 in Fries Auditorium at 10:30 a.m. The guest speaker for the occasion will be William J. Trent, Jr.

Trent is former executive secretary of the United Negro College Fund. He is now assistant personnel director for Time, Inc., publisher of Time and Life magazines. Trent received his education from Livingstone College and the University of Pennsylvania. He has done graduate work at the University of Pennsylvania and the University of Chicago.

Trent is a member of the boards of the Child Study Association of America and of Livingstone College. He also serves on the advisory committee of the National Training Laboratories and the College Housing Advisory Committee of the Housing and Home Finance Agency.

Trent lives in New Rochelle, N. Y. He is married to the former Miss Viola Scales of Winston-Salem. He is a native of Asheville, N. C. and the son of the late Dr. William J. Trent, president emeritus of Livingstone College.

Other activities have been scheduled by the senior class for the enjoyment of lower classmen and friends. On Thursday, May 21, at 8 p.m., the annual Class Night activities will take place. This program will be held in Fries Auditorium.

WILLIAM J. TRENT, JR.

Saturday, May 23, is scheduled as Alumni Day. A dinner is scheduled at 1 p.m. The day will be climaxed with the senior class being inducted into the Alumni chapter of the college and a dance.

Class Day is to be held the Monday of May 25. At this time the Magna Cum Laude will be our guest speaker. The place is Fries Auditorium at 11:00 a.m.

The senior class invites each of you to share with it these memorable events.

Summer School Plans Announced

Registration for summer school will be conducted on Monday, June 15, between 9:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. It is expected that all registration will be completed within the time allotted. A late registration fee of $5.00 will be charged after 4:30 p.m. June 15. There will be a charge of $1.00 for changes in schedule after an individual's schedule is completed. Special registrations will be held July 6 and 27 for those entering at that time.

Students who do not hold a certificate should bring or send official evidence of their graduation from an accredited high school, or a statement from the college last attended indicating honorable status. Students presently attending another college should have the program which they intend to take approved by the appropriate college official to insure receiving credit for the work they take.

Different courses will be offered in the following areas: art, education, mathematics, music, nursing, physical science, and social science. Special offerings will include:

Alcoholic studies — logical and psychological problems which arise through the use and misuse

(Continued on Page Four)

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Date	Time	Place	Attraction
May 21	8:00 p.m.	Fries Auditorium	Class Night
May 23	1:00 p.m.	Kennedy Dining Hall	Alumni Day
May 24	3:00 p.m.	Fries Auditorium	Baccalaureate
May 24	7:00 p.m.	Fries Auditorium	Choir Concert
May 25	11:00 a.m.	Fries Auditorium	Class Day
May 26	10:30 a.m.	Fries Auditorium	Commencement

Excellence Is Needed, Jesse Jackson Tells Students At Awards Day Fete

"Excellence is the order of the day and Negroes must use this quality to overcome the shambles of segregation," Jesse L. Jackson, president of N. C. A & T College student government told students at Winston-Salem State College.

He addressed the third annual Awards Day Program held in Whitaker gymnasium, May 6, 1964. He spoke on "Excellence is the Demand of the Hour."

Dr. Joseph Patterson, chairman of the honors committee, presided. The honorees were preceded by members of the college choir as the procession entered the gymnasium. Later, Donald Benson read the scripture and prayed. An oration, "This Is Man," by Thomas Wolfe was dramatically recited by Hayward Sims. The concert band and the college choir provided the music for the program. Dr. Kenneth R. Williams explained the occasion and extended congratulations to the students who were to receive awards.

Miss Geraldine Pete, president of the Student Council, and Miss Margaret A. Williams headed the list of students receiving awards in various phases of college life. Both received three awards. Two other students, Miss Audrey Ragsdale and Miss Helen Gore, won two honors each.

Jackson, an honor student and star athlete at A. & T., is recognized as a leader in the Young Democratic Club movement and

(Continued on Page Four)