

The News Argus.

VOLUME VI, NUMBER 3

WINSTON-SALEM STATE COLLEGE, WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

JANUARY, 1968

Lorraine Riddick, Miss Phi Beta Lambda.

HOMECOMING MEMORIES NOTED

Homecoming is a fun time for all. There are many activities and the most colorful parade one will ever see in his life. Various clubs and organizations display their queens, floats, cars or all three.

The Sophomore float won number one for its display of politics, sports, and academic leadership.

Miss Delores Sharon Hall of Raleigh displayed the politic symbol on the float. Miss Hall is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hall. She is a 1965 graduate of John W. Ligon High

(Continued on Page Three)

AFRO-AMERICAN CLUB IS ORGANIZED ON WSSC CAMPUS

There is in existence on Winston-Salem State College's campus a new organization, the Afro-American League. The purpose of the Afro-American League is to develop a sense of racial pride and identity by studying Negro history.

Mr. James Galloway, the chairman of the Social Science department, is the faculty sponsor. Ron Hicks and Charles Thornton, seniors from Winston-Salem, were elected co-chairmen. The members are:

Gladys Flack, secretary; James MacMillian, treasurer; Tressie Dingle, Ann Dubose, Evelyn Shouse, Lasenia Howie, Alex Carter, Charles Baldwin, Terry Spann, and Nelson Malloy.

One of the activities of the organization was a lecture by Dr. Edem from Nigeria about Africa in general and his country in particular.

The meeting on Wednesday, Dec. 13, included the playing of an album on Negro history. In the future the League plans to bring in some guest speakers. Howard Fuller, a well known "Black Power" advocate, has agreed to speak.

All students interested in becoming knowledgeable about the history of the Afro-American are welcome to join the Afro-American League. Check the bulletin board for the next meeting.

—Charles Thornton

Shown above are the Winston-Salem State College Rams defending national champions of the NCAA College Division and defending visitation champions of the CIAA. Read about them on page 4.

English Club Sponsors Variety of Activities

The English Club recently reorganized and is now functioning on campus. All English majors and minors were invited to join. The first meeting was held on Nov. 17, in Carolina Hall, Room 105. Officers for the 1967-68 school year were elected.

Officers are president, Arthur Blue, a junior; vice-president, Joyce Pettis, a senior; recording secretary, Janet Mason, a junior; corresponding secretary, Dorothy Shade, a senior; treasurer, Betty Floyd, a junior. Mrs. H. J. Harvey has been named the new faculty advisor.

Committee chairmen selected were: the By-laws committee, chairman — Betty Atkinson; the Program committee, chairman — Joyce Pettis; the Social committee, chairman — Luevora Nicholson.

The second meeting was held on Dec. 7, 1967 in the lecture room of Hill Hall. At this meeting it was evident that the English Club will really be seen in action during this school year.

Reports were heard from the committees and tentative plans were made for future programs of general interest to the student body.

Blue called attention to some of the movies to be shown on campus of interest to English students: January 6, 1968 — Story of Ruth; March 3, 1968, Patch of Blue; March 10, 1968, Cleopatra, and To Kill a Mocking Bird, date to be announced later.

Final plans were made for a bus trip to the School of the Arts to see Pirandello's Enrico Four. Forty members of the club attended.

The next meeting is scheduled for January 11, 1968, in the lecture room of Hill Hall.

—Mary Taylor

College Band Changes Groove from Marching to Orchestra

The WSSC Band, under the new direction of Mr. Robert E. Shepherd, has turned from a successful marching season to a more serious concert season.

Mr. Shepherd, the former band director at Anderson High School, is a native of Kinston, N. C. He received his B.S. degree at A & T University, his master's at Columbia University, and he has done further study at the University of Texas.

Mr. Shepherd, as well as the members of the concert band, is looking forward to a more successful concert season.

Activities for the concert band include a regular concert at J. C. Smith University, a program for the new education building, and an extensive spring tour through Columbia, S. C. and Atlanta, Ga. and an open air concert for the Easter holidays.

The music to be played at these activities will include such pieces as Jubilation, An Overture by Robert Ward, "Mannin Veen" by Hadyn Wood, Hymn of Freedom by Johannes Brahms, Music for a Ceremony and "Meditation" from "Thais" by Massenet.

The band has an inspiring motto to keep it going, "Quality rather than Quantity."

Josette Keit

23 Students Admitted To College "Who's Who"

Recently 23 seniors at Winston-Salem State College were admitted to Who's Who Among Students In American Colleges and Universities.

The students must be seniors and must portray outstanding qualities in leadership, scholarship, and participation in school activities.

Marion Alston is a 1964 graduate of Eastman High School in Enfield. Her major is elementary education with a minor in English. She is a member of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority and an active member of the English Club.

Shirley Clavon is a Health and Physical Education major from Winston-Salem.

Carolyn Deloeno Brooks is a native of Pittsboro. She is a 1964 graduate of Horton High School. Her major is elementary education with a minor in sociology. Miss Brooks was an active member of the News Argus staff. Presently she is a member of the yearbook staff. She is a member of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority. After graduation Miss Brooks hopes to become a social worker.

Claudia Cherry is a native of Sharpsburg. She is a graduate of Frederick Douglass High School in Elm City. Her major is health and physical education with a minor in biology. After graduation Miss Cherry hopes to attend graduate school.

Miss Peggy Dulin is a product of Paisley High School of Winston-Salem. Her major is business education. She is an active member of Phi Beta Lambda, the newly formed business majors' club, the NAACP, Day Students' Organization and Student National Education Association. Miss Dulin reigned as Miss SNEA during the Homecoming Day activities. Currently she is a part-time secretary in the Business Department and serves as a typist for the yearbook staff.

Miss Deitra Eaton is an elementary education major from Winston-Salem.

Miss Joyce Everette is a 1964

graduate of Newbold High School in Lincolnton. Her major is elementary education with a minor in history. She is a member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority and an active member of the Charm Club.

Johnson B. Hunter is a native of Lincolnton. He is a member of the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity. His major is elementary education.

Miss Carolyn O. Johnson is a native of Burgaw. Her major is nursing.

Mrs. Patricia Johnson is a native of Cedartown, Ga. She is an English major and an active member of the English Club and Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society. After graduation Mrs. Johnson hopes to pursue a career as a college English teacher. Mrs. Johnson has five children. She lives on a farm and states she always has kittens to give away!

Miss Thomasina Lindsay is a native of Gastonia. Her major is elementary education with a minor in history. For the past three years she has been a clerical assistant in the Teacher Education Department. After graduation, Miss Lindsay plans to enter graduate school.

Joyce O. Pettis is an English major from Columbia. She is vice-president of the English Club.

Miss Tommie Robinson is a native of Winston-Salem. She attended the Forsyth County public schools. Presently Miss Robinson is an elementary education major. She has taken an active part in many organizations since her freshman year at the college. Miss Robinson has been a member of the NAACP, SNEA (Student National Education Association), the English Club, reporter for the Pan-Hellenic Council, treasurer for the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, a member of the Day Students' Organization, student representative for the Disciplinary Board, and a member of the concert band (clarinet play-

(Continued on Page Four)