

The News Argus.

VOL. VI, NO. 7

WINSTON-SALEM STATE COLLEGE, WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

MAY, 1968

Ernest Clemons Elected State SNEA Head

The North Carolina Student National Educational Association held its annual spring meeting on April 5, 1968 at Shaw University in Raleigh, North Carolina.

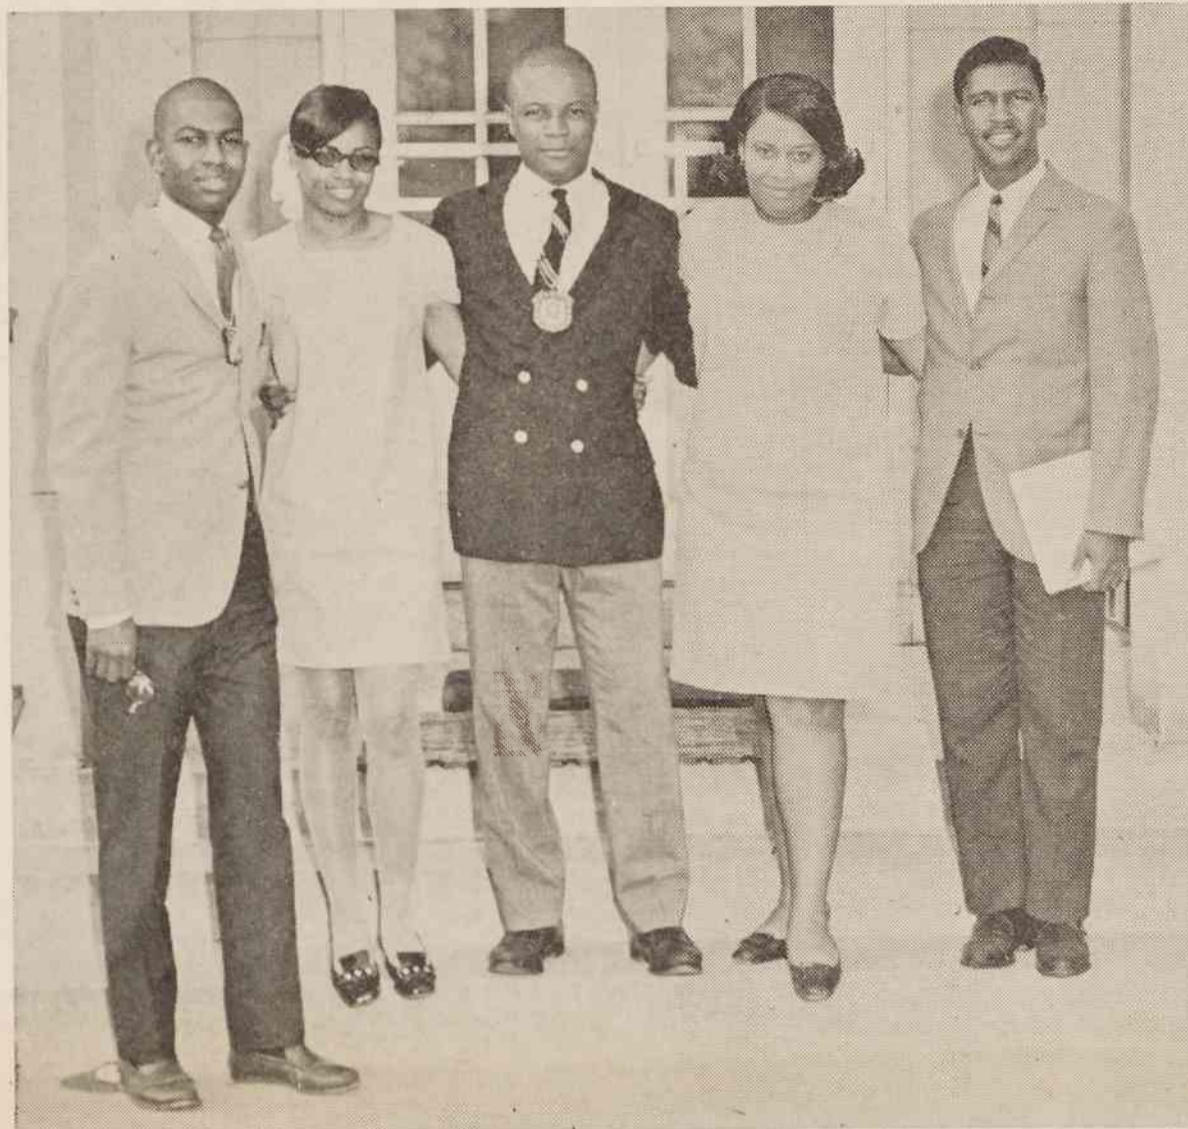

Attending this state meeting were representatives from St. Augustine's College, Elizabeth City State College, Fayetteville State College, Barber-Scotia College and Winston-Salem State College. The delegates representing WSSC were Charlene Paylor, Maurice Jackson, Linda Whitfield, Julia Sheppard, Flora Reddick, Walda Braxton, Eldora Ewing, Gwendolyn White, Ernest Clemons, and Mr. John F. Lewis.

The meeting was held to elect and install new state officers. The state officers for 1968-69 are the following persons:

President: Ernest Clemons, Winston-Salem State College; First Vice-President: James Burt, St. Augustine's College; Second Vice-President: Donnell Morris, St. Augustine's College; Third Vice-President: William McMillian, A & T State University; Corresponding Secretary: Naomi G. Hagwood, A & T State University; Recording Secretary: Wilbert Hawkins, Elizabeth City State College; Chaplain: Gwendolyn Chambers, Fayetteville State College; Parliamentarian: Maurice Jackson, Winston-Salem State College.

The newly elected president, Ernest Clemons, attended the SNEA Regional Meeting which was held May 10 and 11, in Atlanta, Ga.

Robbin Kirkland Elected President of SGA

New SGA Officers are (L. to R.) Fred Terry, Gail Owens, Larry Butler, Carol Page, and Robbin Kirkland.

The leading voice in campus politics next year will be that of Robbin Kirkland. Kirkland, an Independent candidate, launched himself into the political ring against two candidates of established parties in the spring election.

He received 239 votes, defeating John Brown of the Liberal party and Joseph Lightsey of the Progressive party. He is the 1968-69 president of the Student Government Association.

A native of Winston-Salem, Kirkland is a physical education major and a history minor. He is a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, the Young Democrats Club and the baseball team. He made the following statement upon his election: "As president-elect of the Student Government Association, I am looking forward to a very prosperous and enjoyable year. I am also looking forward to sharing my ideas and instituting those things which will be beneficial to the student body and to Winston-Salem State College".

Competition was also keen in the campaign for the office of vice president. Fred Terry, a sophomore transfer student from Akron University, received 224 votes to Ronald Dyson's 173.

Larry Butler, a junior, took the office of judicial affairs 231-194 over Robert Anderson.

The office of social affairs was won by Robert Massey, a sophomore, with 245 votes over Burma-deane George, a junior, who received 155 votes.

The incumbent Gail Owens, a sophomore, remains head of secretarial affairs with 238 votes over Margaret Sweat, a freshman, who received 177 votes.

The office of financial affairs saw keen competition between Carol Page, president of Phi Beta Lambda, who received 206 votes to Shirley Pete's 191 votes.

—Frederick Edwards

175 SENIORS TO RECEIVE DEGREES ON MAY 26th

A class of 175 seniors will be graduated from Winston-Salem State College at 3 p.m. Sunday, May 26, in Fries Auditorium.

Speaker for the commencement exercises will be Mr. Hobart Taylor, Jr., of Washington, D. C. Mr. Taylor has served as Special Counsel to the President's Commission on Equal Employment Opportunity, Special Assistant to President Johnson, Associate Counsel to President Johnson, and is presently a partner in a prominent law firm. A native of Texarkana, Texas, Mr. Taylor received the Bachelor of Arts degree from Prairie View

State College; the Master of Arts degree from Howard University and the LL.B. degree from the University of Michigan.

Commencement Week activities began Sunday, May 19, with the annual choir concert. The seniors will be honored at dinner on May 22, and Class Day activities are scheduled for Friday, May 24.

Alumni Day will begin with dinner and a business meeting at 4 p.m. Saturday in Whitaker Gymnasium. At this time seniors will be formerly inducted into the association.

Two Students Win Study Grants

JACQUELYN TAYLOR

Miss Jacquelyn Taylor, a sophomore from Brooklyn, New York, has received a grant to attend a Summer Institute in Repertory Theater at the University of California in Santa Barbara, Calif.

Miss Taylor will study drama and will star in one of the four plays sponsored by the Summer Institute. She will assist in the production and direction also. The Summer Institute will begin June 17 and will end August 2.

Miss Taylor is an English major and an Art minor. She is an active member of the Dramatics Guild, English Club, and a member of the New Argus Staff. Her hobbies are designing clothing, drawing, and reading.

Miss Gloria Herring, an Elementary Education major from Lakewood, New Jersey, has received a scholarship to study at Yale University this summer. Last summer, Miss Herring was the recipient of a scholarship to study at Columbia University.

The scholarship is offered by the Carnegie and Ford Foundations or the I.S.S.P., the Intensive Summer Studies Program, which was established in 1966 by Harvard, Yale, and Columbia Universities. The program was set up in an effort to identify and evaluate students capable of completing advanced degree programs, to encourage such students to apply to graduate schools, and to recommend them for admission to appropriate graduate committees.

Miss Herring will enroll at Yale June 22. The program will terminate August 18.

Miss Herring, a junior at WSSC, plans to enter graduate school and pursue a degree in social research. She is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, a cheerleader, and an active member of many functions on and off campus. She enjoys dancing, skating, horseback riding, and listening to jazz and gospel records.

—Janet Beckett

After graduation, she plans to attend graduate school to earn a degree in Dramatic Arts.

GLORIA HERRING

May 19-26

SUNDAY, May 19

Senior Week Activities
Annual Choir Concert
Fries Auditorium

SATURDAY, May 25

4:00 P.M. Alumni Dinner
Business Meeting
Induction of Seniors into Alumni Association
Whitaker Gymnasium

SUNDAY, May 26

3:00 P.M. Commencement
Mr. Hobart Taylor, Jr., Attorney
Dawson, Quinn, Riddell, Taylor and Davis
Washington, D. C.
Fries Auditorium
4:30 P.M. Reception
Seniors, Parents of Seniors, Faculty, Alumni
Auditorium Lawn