Wallace Discusses Rams

Coach Cleo Wallace will begin his fourth year as head coach of the Winston-Salem State University football team on August 20, 1973.

Wallace predicts that, "this will be the most challenging year the Rams ever had. It will be the first time in the history of the school that the Rams have played 11 football games in one season."

The first game will be played September 8, 1973. The Rams will challenge the North Carolina Central Eagles here in Winston-Salem.

The following starters will not be returning this year: tightend Bobby Garner, wide receiver Jeffrey Lewis, guard Franklin (Fat Cat) Jackson, linebacker-guard Reginald Fenner, and tackle Freddie Nelson.

Coach Wallace says, "we have a nucleus to build on but we've got to do some juggling. A couple of the fellows will be put in posts they have never played before."

Quarterback and center continue to present problems says Coach Wallace. But Henry Rouse a 6' 2", 200 pound junior from Fascin, N. C. will free Curtis Phieffer from the center position. Phieffer, a 240 pound junior from Charlotte, N. C. will play strictly defense this season. Londell McClary and Jeff Johnson, both of Charlotte are the returning quarterbacks. McClary is small at 5' 11" and 162 pounds but he throws the roll-out pass well. Johnson at 6' 4" may win the spot this season. Another prospective candidate for the position is incoming freshman, Frank Goode, from Badin, N. C.

The freshman candidates for this fall are: Charlie Wilkerson, Ronald Davis, Daryl Leach, Richard Atwater, Eugene Jackson, Franko Goode, Lonnie Scales, Vernon Thompson, Gary Blount, Bernard Douglas, Michael Gregg, Reginald Holmes, Jerry Powers, Curtis Rushing, Steve Carrothers, Clifford Pierce, Rupert Weeks, Daniel Mans, Kevin Holt and Quenton Hennighan.

With all these additional players on the squad Coach Wallace feels certain that he has a winning Ram team for this season.

The Rams and staff would like to thank its many loyal supporters and we ask for their continued support this season.
