You are sexually aggressive. You demand attention. You are uncontrollably jealous. You are a Scorpion.

The sign of Scorpio symbolizes death and deceit. It is the allegorical serpent mentioned in Genesis as tempting Eve. October 23 - November 21 denotes the dates of Scorpio. Logically, Scorpio follows the balanced aspect of Libra.

Scorpio signifies the generation of ideas. Those dominated by this sign have an inexhaustible supply of ideas and suggestions. Their brains are literally crammed full of inventive imageries. Often ~~scorpio plans are~~ Ask them for an idea, or suggestion, and you will literally drown in a sea of ideas.

The Scorpion also possesses a keen perception and intuition. And this perception, accompanied by the deceit of the sign, makes a person to beware. For hidden within the suggestions of the Scorpion is a trick. So clever is the fellow that he can often talk you into doing something for him without even asking.

The most sexual sign of the zodiac, the Scorpion male and female are both aggressive in love. They desire to be the pursuer, and tend to think of love in terms of a hunting game, with you as the quarry. Scorpions make excellent mates.

They excel as doctors, chemist and surgeons. Besides a great mechanical ability, they seem to possess an understanding quality, which they pass on to their patients. Scorpions also tend to make good athletes, and especially good runners, as their sign rules the thighs, therefore making the thighs and legs the most powerful part of their body.

AIN'T NO NEED

Teardrops fall so vastly as another day is gone,

By some strange sad occurrence It seems you're all alone.

But days seem like forevers as the dark clouds pave the way, While each day you search so desperately for anything to say.

When life has turned it's back on you it just ain't worth the time If you sit down with pouts and fears while problems lag behind.

For if you want the "best" of life then rise and take your stand, Cause ain't no need in crying when it seems you've hit quicksand!

Ain't no need in worrying about things way from the past, The future is the thing that counts and what may virtually last, And if past thoughts have caused you pain,

Relax, they're out of view, But if you want to be someone, It all depends on You!

STUDENT POETRY

Ain't no need in crying when a love has let you down, For if it was a lasting love, You'd never need to frown.

Just get your mind together and right in the nick of time, You'll come to see, that You will be, The one who'll blow the mind!

Ain't no need in crying when the door shuts in your face, For as long as you have faith in God,

He will prepare a place. And if your worries tripple to a stage beyond compare, Just sit and count your blessings with the thought that God is there.

Ain't no need in envy when good looks you don't possess, Just look on the inside brother, You just may be the best. The smile shown on the outside may not show the heart that's pure, But a smile with acts of kindness is a smile that will endure.

Ain't no need in fearing when the day of decision comes, For the plans you made may alter but your work may be half done. Just keep your mind "together" and try to "tackle" pain, Just put your best foot forward and "respect" beside your name.

Ain't no need in crying when the rainstorms come in piles. For they will never touch you if you keep that glowing smile. And when you've become homeless and you don't know where to go Just take the time to think about how "faith" can make you grow.

Ain't no need in crying, Trouble can't last always.... Ain't no need in fearing, When you face your darkest days....

Ain't no need in envy, Search your heart, your mind, and soul,

Ain't no need in doubting when you've finally reached your goal!

And when the time of trouble seems to hit you everyday, It ain't no need, Cause you'll succeed, And you'll be A-O'Kay!

So dry those tears my people and just say "It ain't no need", For if faith's there, You'll always have the power to succeed!

So keep your thing "together" and learn to conquer fear, And keep the thought of "maybe" I'll just sweat it out this year. Cause if you doubt yourself Then who's truly left to believe? And when you start to crying, Tell yourself.... It Ain't No Need!

DON'T BLAME ME (A Child's Plea)

Don't blame me, for I am only a relection of my parents; of a generation before me.

Don't blame me for my behavior, because yesterday I used the bathroom all on my own. Don't try to poison my mind with prejudice and other diseases because my mind is innocent, so it really doesn't matter to me.

Don't blame me for my Blackness, Whiteness, Redness or Yellowness, because who are you to bear falt; you too, are a part of the genocide.

Don't blame me for what I am destined to be, because I am only one in four billion made in the image of the divine Creator.

"Gourmet" Meal

The answers to this month's "Genia's Jumbles" are not provided anywhere in this paper. And the reason is simple. We're having a contest.

The first person who can "CORRECTLY" complete the puzzle in this issue of the News Argus and present it to Miss Eugenia Parker, the puzzles' creator, will be awarded a gourmet dinner in the Student Union canteen.

The News Argus will announce the winner in its next issue.

The puzzle consists of names of all the band members, and includes nicknames of several campus students.

+ Members of the News Argus staff are not eligible.
