

STUDENT

Try Jesus

POETRY

By Clarissa K. Windley

"SEASONS"

On a chilly November night
 Like two small leaves
 in mid-flight; we drifted together.
 It was a surprise to me; I didn't even know you existed but you knew I did.

GRAINS

This child of all Innocence and joy
 Kicks the sandpiles
 Then scatters the bodies
 Of those long gone

Are you tired of the same old parties?
 Has the dope you've been making, sniffing and shooting up gotten to be a habit?
 Is the wine of the century getting to be a little old?
 Are you sure that the cigarette you're smoking hasn't lost its kick?
 Well, not that you've tried all the rest, why not try the best -

"best". "He is like a Coco Cola - "He's the real thing."
 If you want a solid foundation to start building on, step on the ship of Life headed for heaven. Jesus stands at the door and knocks. Any man hearing his voice and who enters in shall receive his just rewards.
 The door is always open, the Saviour is waiting all and all you have to do is come.

NOTICE!

TO OUR READERS:
 DUE TO PRINTER'S ERROR THE PAGES OF THIS ISSUE OF THE NEWS ARGUS ARE NOT IN THE CORRECT ORDER.
 PLEASE PARDON THE INCONVENIENCE.

NEWS ARGUS EDITOR,
 STAFF, AND ADVISOR

feel that you are all alone help. Although accepting is a personal venture, are people and rations on campus to help and give you spiritual ce.
 is the International Youth For Fellowship, which meets Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Hut on campus. The Religious Council meets p.m. each Wednesday in Alumni Hut, and the International Youth for Fellowship Choir holds sals in the Alumni Hut on ay from 6:30 to 9 p.m. personal assistance there minister's association on s. It's members are available for coun-ll. are many treasures to in the Lord Jesus Christ. t him today and find out.

Choir News

Winston-Salem State City Choir has really been into the swing of things. Singing, the Singing Rans ig to be pretty busy.
 Feb. 28, the WSSU City and Appalachian University Choirs ed a joint rendition of the score, Gloria, by Francis , for the North Carolina of the American Choral or's Association A.). performance was ed by the Urban Rural live.
 er event recently held at College, Greensboro, as the Inter-Collegiate Association (I.M.A.). s of the WSSU Choir ted in the affair, which Feb. 20-22.
 g events of the Choir performing with the Duke i Orchestra and taking ual spring tour.
 Nell Smith

character. This accounts for his refusal to see things as they really are. And this is where the main problem comes in their lives, because of the conflict of their aspirations and the true goals that they reach.
 The Piscean lives with an invisible pair of rose-colored glasses on his nose. He sees everything as he wishes it to be, not as it really is. Because of this he tends to go overboard in love, feeling that if he loves someone then surely that person will love

Although they work well in an atmosphere of helping others, Pisceans do not make good leaders because of a passive quality about them. There is in them a lack of attention to details, and often the Piscean will leave work unfinished. Jobs in art, music or the humanities are better suited for the Piscean personality. It is in these types of jobs that he feels he has a better chance of helping the world to achieve universal harmony.

improvements at state institutions of higher learning-affecting 13 of the 16 University of North Carolina campuses. Of this $43.2 million, it is proposed that WSSU receive $2,175,000 for a classroom-laboratory building which campus officials feel is greatly needed.
 The project is funded by WSSU faculty donations for promotion of the March 23-Campus Bond Issue and will continue through March 9.

Allen Griffin

