"He's The Seed
Of My Life"

He's the seed of my life
the growth of my days.
He's the journey of innocense
the crowning of light.
He's the seed of my life.

God is the pathway
The Brightness of the days.
He's the Goodness of all things.
He's the seed of my life.

He helped me through darkness to light.
He guides me and never lets
me down.
He's beside me all the way,
Step by step
He's the seed of my life.

He's with me through thick and thin
Through troubled waters to the stillness and
peacefulness of the day,

He's helped me and never left me
He's the seed of my life!

Voices, Inc. -- "Harlem Heyday"

Kenneth R. Williams Auditorium was the setting January 25 for a most invigorating musical featuring Voices, Inc. of New York. The cast of nine presented "Harlem Heyday", a one act musical revue of Black nostalgia that took the audience back to the vaudeville and theatre days of the 1920's.

The story was relived through the memories of an oldtime star, Rufus GoNightly, who had danced to the sound of ragtime, jazz, blues and melodic pop tunes.

Rufus was able to bring back to life the joys of

February Forecast

Aquarius: For you Aquarians born in the first half of February, may I advise you to keep your optimism, even when frustration and confusion make everything seem dismal. Prepare now for the brighter days ahead. You're inclined to keep your plans and thoughts to yourself and want to be alone most of the time. Write poetry or make your own Valentine's. Birthday month or not, there's real tough going ahead, and you be on your best behavior both at home and at work. Accept delays, disappointments and frustrations and ultimately you will achieve greater success and happiness than you ever imagined.

Pisces: Now for you Pisceans, born in the second half of the month, you crave for expensive clothes and jewelry this month may get you in trouble, so you'd better control extravagant spending. Take advantage of an opportunity to lead others, but balance their needs with yours. The inspiration and help you give someone will satisfy your need to make sacrifices. Be patient concerning problems with relatives. Above all "Think before you speak".

WSSU HOSTS FESTIVAL

The Sixth Annual Choral Festival of the North Carolina Chapter of the American Choral Directors Association will be held at WSSU on Saturday, February 19.

Choral organizations from Wingate College, Appalachian State University, University of North Carolina -- Greensboro, University of North Carolina -- Chapel Hill, Gardner Webb College, Mars Hill College, Peace

College, Pfeiffer College, Campbell College, East Carolina University and WSSU will perform throughout the day.

The Festival will be held in the Kenneth R. Williams Auditorium from 8:00 a.m. -- 12 Noon and from 1:30 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. It is free and open to the public. For a complete schedule of performances call Mr. Robert Morris, director of the WSSU Choir, at 761-2046.

theatre days. Dancing and singing to such tunes as "Harlem", "Walk Right In", "Ballin' the Jack" and "Charleston".

Voices played to an audience of about 250 people. The audience was presented with true down-home humor and a variety of comical scenes that will be remembered for a long time.

An informal talk with the cast members proved to be interesting and quite informative. The members commented on their experiences and their work and it turned out that some of them have experience in different areas of entertainment. For example, Bernice Hall, who played the role of susie in the Butterbeans and Susie comedy routine began with classical training. She has worked in such phases of show business as television and radio and has traveled extensively.

Lynn Godfrey specializes in dancing and directing. She is an actress and has just returned from Europe.

Keisha St. Joan stated that she has been singing for 25 years. She is an actress and sings soprano, but at one time was an opera singer. Whenever she goes on tour she is a rock singer.

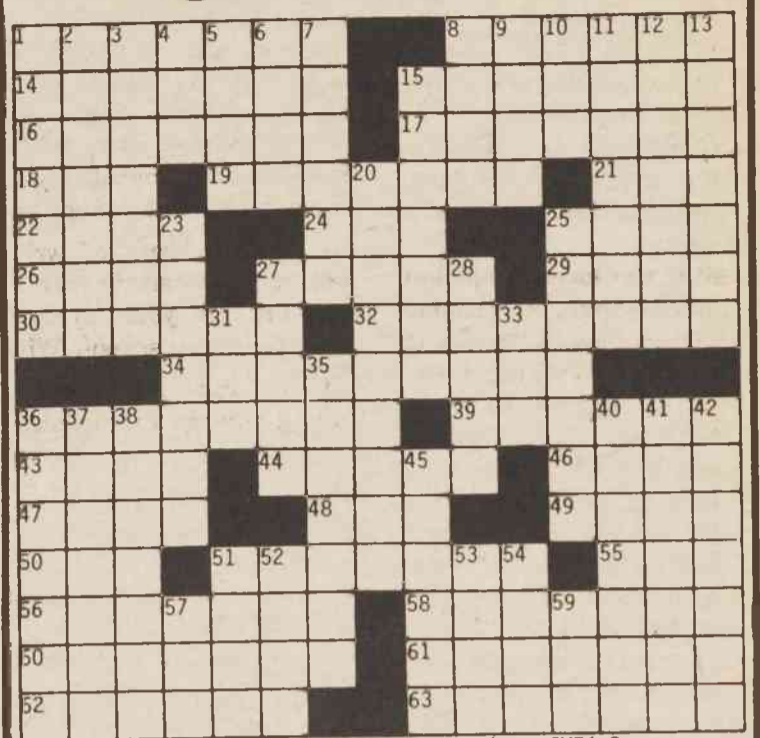

The other members have perfected their singing and dancing naturally. They enjoy the work they are doing, therefore it is not difficult to put on a performance.

Piano player, Jacqueline Hawkins is also a native of New York. She is considered to be very outgoing and she informed several students that her sister is an alumni of WSSU.

Road manager Bo Metzlei said the group has been on tour for over six months. They have appeared in Boston, Durham, Greensboro and Virginia. Future appearances will include Tennessee, New Orleans and California.
