

Day Student Organization Links Off-Campus and On-Campus Activities

by Cynthia White

There are 2,374 students enrolled at WSSU. Of this number there are 1,264 Day Students, yet, only seven belongs to the Day Student Organization. The Day Student Organization is designed to inform students who are not campus residents of the many happenings at WSSU.

Many WSSU students think that you have to be a native of Winston-Salem, to be classified as a Day Student.

According to the University, a Day Student is any students who lives off campus and is a fulltime student. Any student living off campus can become part of the organization. It does not matter if you are from another city but rather that you lived off campus.

Meetings are held once a week to inform Day Students of what is going on at the meeting. Students are allowed to voice their opinions about how day students can become involved with on campus activities. Some of the activities of the organization include Bake Sales, Candy Grams, and Raffles.

Each year a Miss Day Student is also picked. Miss Day Student represents the organization off-campus and on-campus activities, such as the Coronation Ball, Mini Parade, and the Homecoming parade and game. The purpose of the Mini Parade, is to get students involved for Red and White Day. The Day Student Organization also helps the pepclub, band, and SGA prepare for the Mini-parade.

One Goal of the Day Student Organization is to attempt to get total participation of Day Student in all WSSU functions. To this end, the Day Students have in the past sponsored surveys to get the feelings of Day Students on ways to compile a dictionary for all the WSSU Day Students. This was done in an attempt to inform them about what is happening on a specific day and time.
