

Transit Authority Offers Alternative

"Bus Convenient and Economical"

Are you tired of driving 'round trying to find a parking space on campus? Is the cost of operating your car breaking your budget? The Winston-Salem Transit Authority has some good news for you! Beginning October 1st, you can purchase a monthly pass or a ten-ride ticket on campus at the book store.

The monthly pass costs $18.00 and can be used any time on any regularly scheduled route during the month for which it is purchased. A monthly pass should be bought as near the first of the month as possible for maximum benefit.

The ten-ride ticket is $4.75. It can also be used at any time on any regularly scheduled route. The rides are limited, however, to ten (10) per ticket. It can be purchased any time during the month and used from one month to another as long as it is unpurchased rides. Both tickets have the benefit of free transfers.

Two bus routes serve the Winston-Salem State University campus. Route No. 3, Happy Hill Gardens and Route No. 26, Morningside Manor/Easton stop on Claremont Avenue and Cromartie—inbound and outbound. The No. 3 Route comes by every 20 minutes. The No. 26 comes by every hour. Both routes terminate downtown at the old Courthouse square where other buses may be boarded going to shopping centers, movies, restaurants, parks, recreation centers, medical centers and many other places in and around Winston-

Salem. To find out where some of these places are—go to the Student Union Building and check-out our Schedule and Information Rack. The rack contains information on all 19 of our regularly scheduled routes. If you have questions, or need additional information, please call us at 727-2000.

Ride the bus!! Save a buck!! It will help keep your budget unbroken!!

Glamour Magazine Searching For 10

Winston Salem State University students are invited to participate in GLAMOUR Magazine's 1984 Top Ten College Women Competition. Young women from colleges and universities throughout the country will compete in GLAMOUR's search for ten outstanding students. A panel of GLAMOUR editors will select the winners on the basis of their solid records of achievement in academic studies and/or in extracurricular activities on campus or in the community.

The 1984 Top Ten College Women will be featured in GLAMOUR's August College Issue. During May, June or July, the ten winners will receive an all-expenses-paid trip to New York City and will participate in meetings with professionals in their area of interest.

Anyone who is interested in entering the search should contact The News Argus for more information. The deadline for submitting an application is December 9, 1983.
