

Off The Yard...

The Art & Music Department of the Forsyth County Public Library presents drawings by Karen O'Brien Smullen throughout the month of October in the Main Library Gallery.

A native of Buffalo, New York, Karen has resided in Winston-Salem for 5-years. She holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Art Education from Nazareth College of Rochester and a Master of Science in Art Education from State University College at Buffalo.

She has taught various children's classes and adult drawing at Art & Crafts/Sawtooth Center, as well as serving as Youth Co-ordinator for a time.

An opening reception will be held on Sunday, October 2, 1983 from 3:00-4:00pm in the Art & Music Room.

The public is cordially invited to attend the reception and to view this exhibit during the library's regular hours.

CONGRATULATIONS TO:

•Dr. Pauline Fulton of the Department of Communication Arts. The National Council of Teachers of English recently announced her appointment as a regional judge for the 1983 NCTE Achievement Awards in Writing Program. Through this nationally recognized competition, now in its 25th year, approximately 800 high school seniors are cited for excellence in writing and are recommended to colleges and universities for admission and for financial aid, if needed. Seven thousand students have been nominated for NCTE awards in 1983.

•Dr. Astor Herrell, chairman of the Department of Natural Sciences. He has been selected for inclusion in a special multi-media learning program being developed by the Young Adult Services Division of the Martin Luther King Memorial Library, Washington, D.C. The program is designed to expose the library's patrons to the numerous technological accomplishments that have been made by black people.

•Dr. Donald Suttles of the Department of Business. A CPA, he was recently honored by the Piedmont Winston-Salem Chapter of the National Association of Accountants as a co-winner of the outstanding member award.

B.B. King, Jeffery Osborne To Headline Lyceum Series

Blue giant B.B. King will kickoff the 1983 Performing Arts Series of Lyceum Cultural Events at Winston-Salem State University (WSSU). King will be presented at 8 p.m. October 6, in the Kenneth R.
