

WSNC Masquerade Ball a Monstrous Affair

by C. Crump

Ghosts and Goblins were out a little early this Halloween.

The WSNC-FM First Annual Masquerade Ball was held on Oct. 22, at Illusion. All the WSSU ghouls showed their gruesome faces. Among other fiends that attended the ghoulish affair were: the Invisible Man, Count Dracula, and who else besides the Devil, himself.

Cinnamon Ragga Band played at the ball, which was held from 1 until 5 a.m. Hot dogs were sold, and by 4:30, everyone was having such a good time, that hot dogs were being given away.

Not only were there goblins out, but also New-wavers, the unknown comic, Darth Vader and many more of the characters that we know and love.

Around 3 a.m., a masquerade contest was held. The judges were Dr. Eady, Dr. Holman and Mr. Thomas.

Everyone in costume entered the contest. It was a hard decision for the judges, and they were under extreme pressure. From Darth-Vader and the Invisible Man lurking over them, to the famous Unknown Comic shouting for his undue recognition. Despite the pressure and harassment, the judges made their decision.

The winning couple was Mr. and Mrs. Dracula, and the single winner was none other than the Magical Genie.

Toni Evans, WSNC-FM, traffic manager, spoke highly of the ball. "The First Annual Masquerade Ball was a success," she said. "We intend to have this ball every year, and next year, I think the ball will have even more student participation."
