

Students Speak Out

Do You Feel That Black History Month Is Important?

Photos By Keith Hilliard

Reginald McCaskill

Reginald D. McCaskill, Jacksonville, Fla.: Yes, Black History Month is important because we need to know from whence we have come. To my Black brothers and sisters: love each other while you have each other and may God bless.

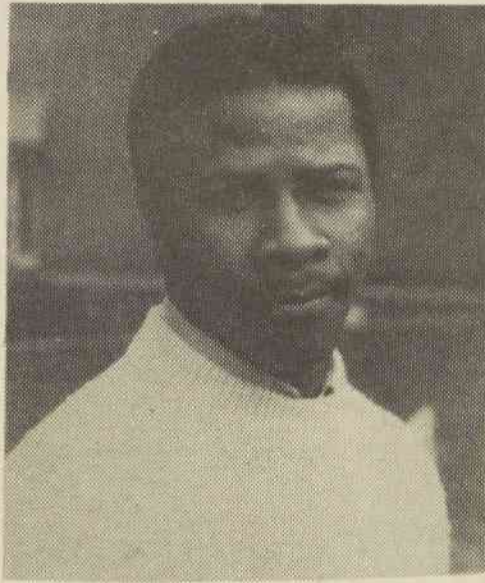

Richard Carson, Shelby, N.C.: I feel that Black History Month is extremely vital to the Black society because it allows us as Black Americans to review our past and to become more knowledgeable about the great contributions that our ancestors made to our society. It also allows other races to become aware of the significant contributions of Black people in virtually all aspects of life.

Richard Carson

Wayne Richardson, Wilmington, N.C.: Yes, I feel that Black History Month is very important. I just wish that more students on campus would realize how important it is. The Student Union has devoted a lot of time in planning activities for the students so I urge each student on campus to participate as much as possible.

Wayne Richardson

Janet Pankey, Southern Pines, N.C.: Yes, I feel that Black History Month is very important because we the Black people need to know how and where we came from. If we don't know, who will let us know. We, the Black people really need to come together and unite as one.

Janet Pankey

Kelvin Walton, Lewiston, N.C.: Yes, Black History Month is very important because it insures one month out of the year that Negroes have a chance to become more aware of their heritage. It gives us a chance to become socially active in our schools, churches and the

Kevin Walton

A horse focuses its eye by changing the angle of its head, not by changing the shape of the lens of the eye, as humans do.

DISCOVER THE OTHER JUNIOR YEAR

Come for your junior year to one of America's leading Women's Studies programs and prepare for your future career.

COME TO DOUGLASS COLLEGE OF RUTGERS

For an application, write to: Director, Junior Year at Douglass Program in Women's Studies, Voorhees Chapel, Douglass College, New Brunswick, NJ 08903.

HAVE YOU EVER ASKED YOURSELF THESE QUESTIONS...

WHO AM I?
WHAT AM I INTERESTED IN?
WHAT CAREER DO I WANT?

Perhaps the Counseling Center Can Help You Answer Them. A Wide Range of Tests And Inventories Are Available For You To Take To Find Out More About Yourself, Your Interests, and Your Abilities.

Contact Mrs. Phyllis Penn in the Counseling Center, Top Floor, Student Union, or call '761-2082 for an appointment.

Don't Delay - Your Future May Depend On It!!!

Clipper Bay

DISCOUNTS OF 40% TO 70%

Clipper Bay is active sportswear, updated classics for men, women, and children. Sweaters, pants, shirts, tops, jackets, skirts, and more. Everything in-season and ready to wear anywhere. Save all year long because Clipper Bay is owned and operated by the manufacturer. Your ship's come in at Clipper Bay.

AN ADDITIONAL

10% OFF

WITH STUDENT I.D.

Offer good on one item only (not valid on sale merchandise) for a limited time.

Burlington Manufacturers Outlet Center

1236 Plaza Drive • Burlington, NC 27215

226-0702 • Open 7 days