

Football Players enjoying Aerobics
Photo by Bonita Perry

Remaining Games For Men's Basketball

Robert's Corner: An Interview With Dean Smith

by Robert Toran

Dean Smith, a native of Walnut Cove, North Carolina is a senior at Winston-Salem State University majoring in physical Education. Dean graduated a triathlete from South Stokes High School. He participated in football as a full back, wrestling at 138, 145, 155 pound weight classes combining a 60-12-3 record in that period and also placing 6th in the state tournament his senior year in high school. He was also involved with the track team specializing in the long jump, 400 meters, 200 meters and mile relay, each of which he took first place in.

Dean wanted to further his education so he accepted a wrestling scholarship from W.S.S.U. Here at W.S.S.U. Dean has continued to perform well in wrestling, and has excelled to the top.

Some of Dean's accomplishments at Winston-Salem State are as follows: He has a combined record of 52-14, 1982 CIAA champion, 1982 NAIA champion, 1982 NCAA regional winner and most outstanding wrestler in the Pembroke Invitational. Now Dean is looking forward to repeating as 1985 CIAA champion and qualifying for NCAA nationals division II March 1 & 2.

Dean wants to pursue his career as a Physical Education teacher and do some coaching in his spare time.

"Dean Smith a unique story"

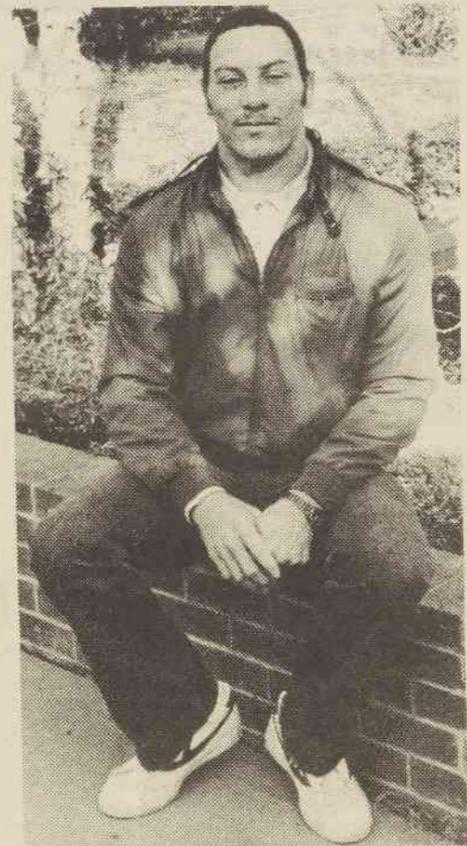

Photo by Bonita Perry

Schedule

Feb. 15	North Carolina A&T	Winston-Salem, NC	7:30 pm
Feb. 17	Johnson C. Smith*	Charlotte, NC	7:30 pm
Feb. 19	St. Augustine's College*	Winston-Salem, NC	7:30 pm
Feb. 23	Livingstone College*	Winston-Salem, NC	7:30 pm
Feb. 27	CIAA First Round	Norfolk, VA	TBA
Feb. 28	CIAA Quarter Finals	Norfolk, VA	TBA
Mar. 1	CIAA Semi Finals	Norfolk, VA	TBA
Mar. 2	CIAA Finals	Norfolk, VA	TBA

Academics Hurt Tennis Team

By Lynell Winston
Sports staff writer

year, they do have a couple of bright spots in their lineup.

Dave Alston is one. Alston is a senior majoring in Business Administration and a native of Medford Mass. Alston wasn't on the squad last season, but he should be ranked in the top three, in this year's squad.

Owen Scoggins will be another positive force on the Rams roster. Scoggins, a sophomore, majoring in Special Education and is a native of Durham N.C. He will be rated number 2 or 3 on the team this year.

The team will play approximately 18 matches this season. Their first match will be on March 1st.

Johnson C. Smith University won the Southern Division Championship last season and are favored again this year. Livingstone is also picked to finish high because of returning players to their squad.

This year's tennis team will prove to be one of rebuilding. The team is under the direction of eight year head coach, Al Roseboro.

Due to academic ineligibility, the team will be losing from three to five players. According to the second year captain, James Roach, poor recruiting is a contributing factor to the Rams losing record last year. Roach, a junior Business Administration major is from Rockland Mass.

"Another factor is that WSSU's Athletic Department isn't willing to pay the tuition for the tennis players. Most of the players must pay their own tuition including myself," explained Roach.

Although the Rams will be rebuilding this

Lady Rams,
Men's Basketball
And
Wrestling Teams..

Good Luck
at the
CIAA
Tournaments

WSSU Student Body,
Faculty and Staff