

Students Speak Out Against New Seat Belt Law

Shelia Rucker, 28 Winston-Salem, N.C. Sophomore - "I think the new mandatory law is essential in that it saves lives. I was glad to hear that it became mandatory regardless of the "inconvenience" it causes drivers."

C. Sport Page, 22, Roanoke, Va., Senior - "I don't think the seat belt helps as much as the U.S. administration claims, especially in the case of an emergency when you need to get out of the car quickly and the seat belt is holding you down."

Sheila Reaves, 19, Greensboro, N.C., Sophomore, Business Administration - "I feel the law is necessary because it is proven to save more lives."
