

WSSU Royalty 1986-87

Alva Kavora Carlisle, Miss Freshman, is a native of Goldsboro, N.C. and presently is undecided on a major. She is the daughter of Rosa Carlisle and has one brother Alvin.

Angela Diane McIntyre, Miss Junior, is a native of Charlotte, N.C. and a Economics major at WSSU. She is the daughter of Katie Moore and has one brother, three sisters and two step brothers.

Tonya Alisa Edwards, Miss Winston-Salem State University 1986-87, she is a native of Chapel Hill, North Carolina and a Business Administration major at WSSU. Miss Edwards is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edwards and has one brother, Robbie.

Terri Antionette Hankerson, Miss Sopomore, is a native of Battleboro, N.C. and a Nursing major at WSSU. She is the daughter of Bessie B. Hankerson and has four brothers.

Regina Davine Drakeford, Miss Senior, is a native of Charlotte, N.C. and a Business Administration major at WSSU. She is the daughter of Queen Elizabeth Drakeford and has four brothers and five sisters.

Dickerson Wins Title Mr. Ram 1986-87

By Derrick Pleasants

An Evening Rendezvous: "The Total Man," was the theme for the 12th Annual Mr. Ram Pageant held on October 2, 1986 in the Kenneth R. William Auditorium at 8 p.m.

With sincerity and cleverness, Michael Dickerson, a sophomore from Burlington, N.C. captivated his audience and now reigns as 1986-87 Mr. Ram.

The other contestants include Stephon Jacobs, a senior from Durham, N.C.; Rodney Moore, a senior from Winston-Salem, N.C.; George Pass, a sophomore from Winston-Salem, N.C.; Mozell Duncan, from Winston-Salem, N.C. and Carlton Carpenter, a freshman from Winston-Salem.

The judges were Maxine Clark, Mutter Evans, Tom Gavin, Terri Gullick, Craig Marberry, Michael Pitt and Renita Thompkins all of Winston-Salem. Each contestant was judged by their presentation of Sportswear, Creative Wear, Formal Wear and Talent.

As the new Mr. Ram Michael Dickerson plans to fulfill and uphold all the qualifications that are expected of him. He also plans to receive student interest in campus activities during his reign.

Dickerson's future plans are to become a Second Lieutenant in the Army and to later attend graduate school and receive a doctorate in Business Administration.

Myrtle Black Elected Miss Alumni 1986-87

by Alfreda Smith

Three Winston-Salem State University alumni are running for Miss Alumni 1986-87. The three contestants have been chosen from their alumni regions.

The New York Chapter and the Eastern Atlantic District of the alumni association have chosen Myrtle S. Black as their candidate. Black graduated with a BS in Elementary Education in 1948 and a MA in Early Childhood Education from New York University in 1958. She has been a professor at New York University, Brooklyn College the College of New Rochelle and a Program Specialist for Head Start and Day Care Training Programs in Washington, D.C. and the University of Maryland.

In 1983 Black opened a private school for pre-Kindergarten, kindergarten, grades one and two in Brooklyn, New York. An after-school tutorial program and a summer day school is also offered at the school.

Marie McNair Moore was chosen by the Richmond Metro Chapter. Moore graduated in 1966 with a BS in Elementary Education. She is a member of the Fourth Street Baptist Church;

Richmond Alumni Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.; Elite Chapter of American Business Women's Association; Richmond Teachers Educational Association and the Metropolitan League.

The final candidate, Dianne H. Peoples represents the High Point Chapter. Peoples graduated in 1966 with a BS in Elementary Education. She began her educational career in the Winston-Salem Forsyth County School System and later transferred to High Point School System where she has been teaching for the last 15 years. Peoples is the president of the High Point Chapter of WSSU Alumni Association for four years an active member of the NCAE, NEA; and a member of the Calvary Baptist Church where she serves on the choir, chair committees, and participates in many church affairs.

The News Argus' Staff would like to wish the best of luck to all of the "Miss Alumni" candidates.