Ms. Edley,
Throughout the years you've been a guide A servant of the Lord to be by our side.

You've encouraged us to think about what God wants us to do, how we should treat others and how we should treat ourselves too.

You've taught us that we can survive and at the same time live right, As long as we pray to our Father God both day and night.

So to you, Ms. Edley, this poem we send, Not just because you're a good leader, but because you're a very good friend.

Twanda,
Neither I,
nor any card I have ever found,
nor any words I have ever written, can express the changes you've wrought in my life;

The happiness you've given me,
or the deep love,
appreciation, and understanding I feel for you.

You asked what I would like to do with you?

I would like nothing more than to be as important to you as you are to me....
