WEED THEM OUT

*If there are people in your life
Who add nothing but heartache and strife
Weed them out without delay
You don't need them in your life anyway*

*If you've had friends who have proved untrue
I don't need to tell you what to do
You know that they're liars and really no good
Weed them out of your life like you know you should*

Get rid of all those negative voices

*You may have to make other choices
But you'll find you'll fare better in the end
By weeding out all those negative so-called friends*

*Surround yourself with positive thinkers
Negative folk are real stinkers
They'll bring you down to their level
Make you feel dumb -- make you think they're clever*

*They prey on people who they really envy Pretend to be your friend -- when they're your worst enemy
Weed them out of your life with a grin
You'll be victorious in the end*

LOOKING FOR LOVE?

*Is it something you can touch?
Why do we all feel we need it so much?
Does it come from above?
Can we ever find this thing called love?*

*Should we have to really look?
Can we find it in a book?
Is it with us all the time?
This thing called love we want to find*

*Maybe I can find it in you
And you can find it in me too
It's not so very hard you see
For I have found a special love in me*

*Here's all I really have to do
To find a love that's very true
I wrap my arms around love real tight
I feel it now - Yes that's right*

*LOVE IS ME - JUST LOVING MYSELF
Now I find it easy to love everyone else!*

ME

*When I look at myself what do I see?
Who is this person staring back at me?*

*Do I know myself very well
What kind of story does my life tell?*

*Can I fool myself if I change my hair
Can I change who I am
With the clothes I wear?*

*Can I cover my true self with lies?
Can I wear an armor of disguise?*

*Can I hide what I know about me?
Can I close my eyes if I don't like what I see?*

*Will my true self just go away?
Just to haunt me again someday?*

nications. These poems are from a body of work she calls "101 Poems for My People."*
