ROLLING STONE and Smith Corona are proud to announce the 14th Annual College Journalism Competition, recognizing excellence among today's college writers. The category winners will receive $1,000 each from ROLLING STONE and electronic typewriter products from Smith Corona. At the judges' discretion, a Grand Prize of $1,500 plus a Smith Corona product may be awarded.

ROLLING STONE editors will judge the entries. Categories are: • Entertainment Reporting (profiles and news features on music, film and personalities); • Essays and Criticism (analytical, evaluative or interpretive compositions on any subject); and

• General Reporting (any subject).

All entries must have been published in a university or college newspaper or magazine between April 1, 1988 and April 1, 1989. Each entrant must have been a full- or part-time student in an accredited university or college during the school year in which his or her entry was published.

Entries must be received by June 17, 1989. They cannot be returned. The winners will be announced by Fall 1989 and will be notified by phone or mail. The names of the winners will be published in a future issue of ROLLING STONE.

We reserve the right not to grant an award when the judges deem it unwarranted.

There is a limit of one entry per student in each category. All entries should be accompanied by an entry form. This form may be duplicated. To facilitate judging, please mount tear sheets of your articles from the magazine or newspaper in which they appeared, on cardboard or poster board. Entries should not exceed 9" x 14". Larger tear sheets may be folded or reduced. On the front of the envelope containing your submission, mark the category or categories that you've entered. Note on the entry form the address where you will be living when the contest results are announced.
