Mr. Ram story jumped from page 15

divulging the judges' choices forthetopthreevictors. Second runner-up, much to the audience's dismay, was Danny McSpadden. Claiming the first runner-up position, for the second consecutive year, was Dewayne Brown. Surprising to some, and a natural choice for others, the new Mr. Ram for 1989 was Barry M. Johnson.

When Johnson stepped forward to accept his crown, the audience reacted with a wild mixture of cheers and jeers. Why so much fuss? What was the problem? Johnson used to be an AGGIE!!! He recently transferred to WSSU and holds the title of MR. AGGIE 1988!

Jay Hutchins, a stage manager for this year's pageant had these comments to make about the decision. "You have toremember that the contestants have to appeal to the judges and not the audience. Perhaps the audience's overall opinion was that another contestant should have won; however, you have to go by what they decided. I thought it was a good competition. Iwouldn't classify it (Johnson's win) as an upset." Apparently many viewed Johnson's win as an upset and an embarrassment to WSSU. "How can we lt an Aggie just come in here and win our pageant?" asked one angry student. Some students were so disappointed that there was even talk of protest.

The key element to Johnson's victory, according to most, was the talent competition. While all the other contestants sang, Johnson presented an emotional monologue.

Indeed, our hats do go off to WSSU's new "big man on campus" Barry Johnson. Congratulations are also in order to Dewayne Brown and Danny McSpadden for receiving high honors in such a notable contest and to the pageant's other contestants.

CONGRATULATIONS TO

and the second s

The 1989

FIGHTING

FOOTBALL RAMS

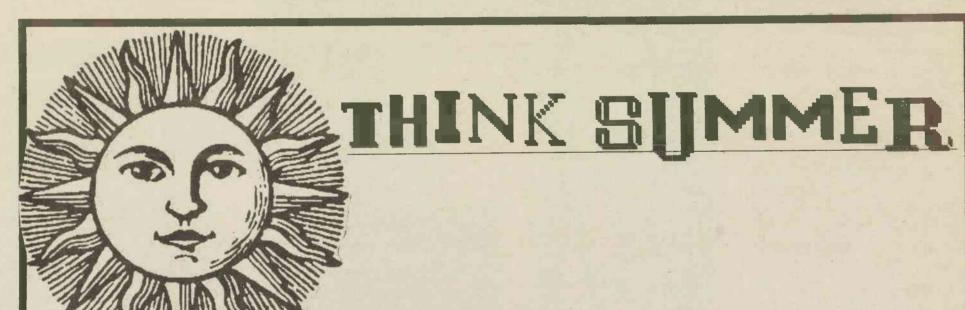

on their SEVENTH

CONSECUTIVE

SOUTHERN

DIVISION CIAA

DIVISION TITLE

With WSSU's Summer School you will make the most productive use of your summer. With two 4-week sessions, no classes June 30 - July 8, and 5 class periods per day, you can arrange for School, Work and Play.

Preregister if you can, or come to the WSSU Student Union on Friday, June 1, to register for sessions I and II or the 6 & 8 week classes.