College Loans Available

College Foundation Inc. (CFI) announced this week that educational loan funds are still available for the 1989-90 academic year. CFI has financial commitments from North Carolina banks in excess of its current estimates on loan needs for funding its three educational loan programs for 1989-1990.

Stafford Loans for Students are for independent self-supporting students and are not based on financial need. PLUS Loans to Parents are for parents of dependent students and are not based on financial need. All three types of loans are offered under the North Carolina Insured Student Loan Program, with the State Education Assistance Authority providing the guarantee.

The loan funds are available for applications received by the Foundation up to 30 days before the end of the academic period specified in the loan request. According to their enrollment situation and financial situations, students may specify the full academic year, or specific semesters or quarters, as their loan periods.

Additional information and applications are available from the financial aid offices at higher education institutions or directly from College Foundation Inc., 2100 Yonkers Road, P.O. Box 12100, Raleigh, NC 27605.

Ted Turner Award

Ted Turner, president of Turner Broadcasting System in Atlanta, recently announced the Turner Tomorrow Award, a prize of $500,000 for the person who writes a novel with a solution for survival and prosperity for all forms of life on earth.

In addition to $500,000, the grand prize winner will be guaranteed a minimum printing of 50,000 copies, a $50,000 budget for advertising and promotion, and full screen credit if TBS makes a movie of the manuscript.

The half-million dollar prize is said to be the largest amount offered as a prize for a single literary work. By comparison, the annual Pulitzer Prize offers $463,000.

Four runners-up will each receive $50,000. All five winning books will be published in hardcover by Turner Publishing, Inc., a subsidiary of Turner Broadcasting.

Manuscripts must be unpublished works of fiction of no less than 50,000 words and set in the near future. They can be written in any language, but must be accompanied by a synopsis of at least 20 pages in English. All manuscripts may be submitted from January 15 through November 20, 1990.

For rules and eligibility, write: Turner Tomorrow Awards, 1 CNN Center, P.O. Box 105366, Atlanta, Ga. 30329.

W-S Journal Announces Internship Program

The Winston-Salem Journal Newspaper in Winston-Salem, North Carolina is accepting applications for the 1990 Summer

Internship Program. Internships will be available for four reporters, one photographer and one advertising salesperson. The program is designed for students with good academic records who have demonstrated serious intentions to pursue careers in newspaper journalism. Rising seniors are generally preferred, but others will be considered, as long as they will be returning to school in the fall. Selections are based on consideration of grades, interest in newspapers as a career, evidence of writing or editing ability demonstrated through class exercises, experience on college or other publications, personal interviews, and references. APPLICATIONS WILL BE RECEIVED BETWEEN OCTOBER 1 and DECEMBER 31, 1989. Editors and managers will announce their selections in late January 1990. For further information and an application blank contact: Mrs. Carlene C. Lloyd, Personnel Manager - THE WINSTON-SALEM JOURNAL, P.O. Box 3159 Winston-Salem, N.C. 27102.

AN UNBEATABLE COMBINATION THE NAVY AND YOU

The Navy offers an unbeatable combination—$30,000 while you're still in college and a commission as a Navy officer after you graduate. If you qualify, the Navy's Baccalaureate Degree Completion Program will pay you more than $1,100 a month during your junior and senior years of college. And you won't even have to wear a uniform or attend Navy classes while you're in school.

You must be aged 19-28, enrolled in or have finished your second year of an accredited four-year college, have good grades (at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale), be a U.S. citizen, and in good health.

Navy officers earn good pay. The tax-free allowances add even more. Benefits are excellent and include free medical and dental care, and 30 days of paid vacation earned each year.

Meet tomorrow's challenges in today's Navy. For more information, see the Navy representative on campus:

SEE LT. REED AT THE CAREER PLACEMENT CENTER ON WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 29. FOR MORE INFORMATION CALL LT REED IN RALEIGH AT 1-800-662-7419.

NAVY OFFICER You are Tomorrow. You are the Navy.
