CIAA: The Glamour of Gold Begins on February 20!

Welcome to Winston-Salem CIAA FANS!!!

Since last February, the City of Winston-Salem has been planning for and looking forward to the return visit of 20,000 plus CIAA basketball fans.

The Glamour of Gold, has been chosen as the theme of this year's activities. Again this year, this city will be gripped in "Tournament Fever" during the week of February 20 - 25th.

The CIAA is composed of 14 Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) from Maryland to North Carolina. Founded in 1912, it is the oldest black athletic conference in the nation. It is also the largest Division II conference in the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA).

Along with the tournament's games, several exciting activities have been planned throughout the week. A fashion show, art exhibits, a cheerleading exhibition, alumni dances, collegiate dances and a golf tournament are examples of some of the many activities planned for CIAA fans.

For more specific information about other CIAA activities, see information below.
