

Black History Celebrations

February Events

All events are free of charge unless noted.

- African American Heritage Tour on Feb. 14; which will feature comedian Debra Terry, musician/actor Lorenzo Meachum, the WSSU Gospel Choir, rap/poetry group Natural Mystic & Spacelee, a yet to be named African dance group, and other local performers.
- Famous orator and motivational speaker Patricia Russell-McCloud is also scheduled to speak at the K.R. Williams Auditorium on Feb. 18 and African storyteller Obakunle Akinlana will be in the Thompson Center room 207 A on the Feb. 21.

- The United Arts Council will present "Our World Student Exhibit" at the Greensboro Cultural Center Feb. 1 - March 1.
- Through Feb. 17: "Founding Members Invitational" exhibit in Greensboro Cultural Center featuring work of AAAF featured artist Earnestine Huff, presented by the African American Atelier. Call 333-6885 for information.
- Through March 18: African Art collection from the Collection of Dr. A. Kelly Maness, Jr., presented by the Guilford College

Art Gallery. Call 273-8488 for more information.

- Feb. 1, 17, March 7, 14, 16: Tokoloshe- A Zulu Folk tale Tour presented by the NC Theatre for Young People at UNCG. Call 334-5575 for more information.
- Feb. 17: "Mahalia- A Gospel Musical" presented by the High Point Theatre and Exhibition Center at the High Point Theatre. Call 883-1007 for information.
- Feb. 18: ArtQuest offers special African interactive art at Karamu at the Greensboro Cultural Center. Call 333-2610 for information.

• Feb. 20: "Celebrating American Achievement in Music" by the Greensboro Symphony Youth Orchestra at Huggins Auditorium on the campus of Greensboro College. Call 335-5456 for information.

• Feb. 26 and March 18: African Arts Series presented to children ages 5-12 by the Center for Creative Arts. Call 333-7475 for more information.

• Feb. 27-28: "Harriet Tubman and the Underground Railroad," at the Carolina Theatre. Tickets $8, $5. Call 333-2605 for more information.

A Seacrest Series Event

Mandinka: West African Epic

Direct from the Kennedy Center!

"Theatre that sings, dances, and ultimately, soars."

Wake Forest University, Friday, Feb. 18, 8 p.m. Wait Chapel

$12 Student tickets. Group discounts - $10 for 10 or more.

(336) 758-5295 WFU Box Office