ELECTION TIME

The time to elect Executive Council officers for BSU of 1971-72 is close at hand. The choice of new leadership for the coming year should be made just prior to spring break (March 26). This will give plenty of time for "orientation," including participation in the State BSU Spring Conference, before the end of this semester. Have you given any serious thought to who is best qualified to take over the reins of student leadership in BSU? If not, DO SO NOW! The time will be upon us before we realize what "time it

Was Joan of Arc truly a saint, or was she a constant thorn in the side of the state and the church, both of whom finally were forced to consign her to be burned at the stake to regain their own

George Bernard Shaw ponders this question in his drama, "Saint Joan," which the Alpha-Omega Players will present on Monday, March 15 at McDowell Columns at 8:00 P.M.

"Saint Joan" is the stirring story of Joan of Arc's faith and inspiration, and it vividly depicts her multi-faceted career from simple peasant girl to great heights to her final con-summation in Rouen.

The roles of the men in Joan's and staunch Captain Dunois, the sympathetic but militant churchman Ladvenue, the childlike Dauphin and the sincere but sinister Inquisitor.

The Alpha-Omega Players have achieved a national reputation for their project of offering great drama in the church school and college, and last year their touring companies presented over 600 performances in virtually every state of the Critics have lauded the Players for an inspirational and compelling picture of the moving episodes in the life of this young woman who changed the history of France, staged with a sincere simplicity which is most fitting for this soul-stirring enactment of a woman's faith.

Two Hired As Student Hosts In Cafeteria

Two off campus students have been employed to serve as hosts in Thomas Cafeteria. The implementation of this measure was deemed necessary by the cafeteria committee to administer rules and insure student adherence.

They are to insure that proper dress is employed at all times with special emphasis on shoes. blue-jeans, athletic uniforms, and Sunday lunch dress. Their duties also include problems such as the throwing of food, breaking in line and failure to take up trays and sating utensils. (Ed. note: It is a pity that a small minority of immature students should force this implement due to their direlection of responsibility and mature

Red Cross Drive Planned

All Head Residents and Dormitory Officers are organizing a Red Cross Fund Drive to end March 12, 1971. Students are being asked to help needy peoples with their contributions.

A contribution of $2 can enable the Red Cross to provide comfort and supplies for our wounded servicemen in Vietnam. For $3 the Red Cross can train five people in first aid, small craft, and water safety, $10 can provide telephone calls for 7 hospitalized patients upon arrival in U.S. from Vietnam, $25 can buy a week's groceries for a family of two who are disaster victims.

All Red Cross services are free with your help. See your Head Resident or Dormitory officer today for more information and to make your contribution.

Requirements Given to Hold Dickie and Joseph Dickerson, both of Murfreesboro and Selective Service Deferment

By D. H. NICHOLSON Registrar

Because so many male students have been asking questions about keeping their II-S deferments for another year of study at Chowan College, it has been decided that perhaps the column from the Registrar's office for this issue of the "Smoke Signals" should be a reiteration requirements for maintaining the college student deferment.

Although, as you may remember from previous articles on this subject, there are many different interpretations of the Seclective Service System requirements for the II-S, it has been this writer's experience that the "31-hour-file-safe-rule" is the one sure answer to the many and HEROINE AND VILLIAN-Purity Dean, played by Martie Twiddy, and Mortimer Snerd, played by Ron Dunn, were the heroine and villian in "Pure As The Driven Snow." Three preformances were given last week on campus and one other performance was given in Norfolk Saturday night.

of the Selective Service System varied questions concerning the requirements for getting and keeping the II-S. In essence, this "fail-safe-rule" simply means that a student should earn at least 31 semester hours per academic year to keep his deferment, or apply for another one.

For many Chowan students who approach the end of their second semester in regular attendance, the fact that they may not have 31 hours for the two semesters in residence can lead to a 1-A classification and imstudents who are in danger of induction because of the possible loss of the II-S and therefore, automatic reclassification as 1-A should know that the Selective Service System considers 12 months from the offical beginning or opening date as an academic year.

Therefore, if the Chowan College student does not earn the minimum number of hours during an average two semesters in residence here in order to keep his deferment, he can go to summer school, either one or both terms, and earn a maximum of 14 semester hours which should put him well within the previously mentioned "fail-safe"

For the student's information, the first term of the summer session at Chowan College begins June 2 and goes through July 8th with the second term beginning July 9th and ending August 14th. During each of the two terms, it is possible for the summer student to take a maximum of 7 hours for a possible of 14 semester hours for the complete summer session. We at Chowan feel that the summer session gives the serious student an excellent opportunity to finish a semester of work in a shorter, (however, more compact) session. This summer session also affords the nonveteran male student an excellent opportunity to insure himself from loss of his II-S deferment.

Those students who are interested in finding out more about summer school or who are planning to apply for further course work in the summer program should pick up a Summer School Bulletin in the office of the Dean of the College as soon as possible.

Research Done On Sexy Films

RALEIGH (AP) - North Carolina legislators faced with the task of rewriting the state's obscenity laws decided to do a little research on the subject one night this week.

Members of the Senate Judiciary 11 committee asked for help from Sen. Jyles Coggins, D-Wake, who introduced the anti-obscenity bill. Coggins

He took the committee members - along with a few other interested senators — to the Wak-Art Theatre in Zebulon, well known for what it calls "triple-X" rated films.

The legislators saw a film entitled "101 Acts of Love" and another feature movie which they said was only slightly ta-
