

Bloodmobile Visit Chowan

By DERONA GAY
and TERESA MARTIN

Chowan had a visit from the Tidewater Red Cross Blood Center October 7 & 8. The Bloodmobile was in the gym from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Tuesday the 7th and from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Wednesday the 8th.

One nurse helping with the bloodmobile made the comment, "A good time was had by all." She might have gotten a few objections if she had spoken a little louder. Another nurse was overheard saying that "they couldn't have made it without the help of the students." Many students took turns helping with records and a few were seen fanning some donors.

Just anybody couldn't walk into the gym and give blood. There were a few requirements to be met by a prospective donor. First of all, you had to be 18 or 17 with a parent's consent. A minimum was set on weight and blood pressure. A donor had to weigh at least 110 pounds and have a blood pressure of 90 over 60 at the lowest. If donors had been exposed to certain diseases recently, were taking medication, or had had their ears pierced within the last six months they were rejected. This covers only a few of the requirements and shows how particular the nurses have to be about whose blood is accepted.

All in all the Bloodmobile was a success. A goal of 200 pints was set and 169 were donated, 114 pints on the 7th and 55 pints on the 8th. This visit there were about 100 donors. Hopefully we will have even more new donors and returning donors the next time the Tidewater Red Cross Bloodmobile comes to Chowan.

The opinion of most donors were similar. They agreed that giving blood isn't painful. It gives you a good feeling about yourself for helping someone who needs the blood you donate. Who knows? The blood you give might help save a life.

Hal Shane, billed as an "Entertainer Supreme," will present a Chowan College Community Concert, Saturday, Oct. 18 at 8:15 p.m. in McDowell Columns auditorium. The auditorium was recently renovated at a cost of $120,000. Shane is a singer, guitarist, and dancer. His program will range from early English madrigals and Villa-Lobos' guitar solos to Broadway tunes, current folk music and his own compositions. Admission is by season membership. Chowan students are admitted by ID cards.

Smith Studio Visits Chowan Campus

By DERONA GAY
and TERESA MARTIN

Smile! That's what the photographer from Smith's Studio was saying the week of September 15-19. These pictures were taken for the 1975-76 yearbook. As a special for the Bicentennial, the pictures were taken in color. When the proofs came back students got the privilege to choose their favorites to be put in the annual.

The proofs were on campus October 7-10 and 13-16.

The photographers were sorry to report that there was one bad roll of film in the bunch. Students whose pictures were on this roll get a second chance the week of November 17-21 when their pictures will be retaken by appointment.

This year the annual staff asked freshmen girls to wear light printed blouses and sophomore girls to wear dark solid blouses. Boys were asked to wear dark coats with light shirts and neckties. Although this was not required, student co-operation was appreciated.

Most students were excited about their pictures and thought the camera had done wonders.

Cross Country Team Remains Undefeated

Chowan College's cross country team won its third and fourth meets of the season, both against senior colleges, Virginia Wesleyan and Virginia State, Oct. 4 in Norfolk.

Curtis Ingram of Southern Pines, Robert Williams of North Garden, Va., Lyncurtis Sitterwhite of Oxford, Thomas Carella of Elmhurst, N.Y., and David Ross of Durham, Mike Johnson of Carreabelle, Fla. finished 11th for Chowan in the 12-man field.

Williams and Satterwhite Carella was sixth. Ross was eighth and Johnson 10th in the field of 13 runners.

the same time with the results recorded as two dual meets. Dodd's winning time was 26:42. Brave Coach Roy Winslow announced Chowan's next home meet is Thursday, Oct. 16 at 4 p.m. against Wingate. The Braves defeated Ferrum 27-28 in their other home meet.

The undefeated Braves captured the first six places in whipping Virginia Wesleyan, 15-46. Stanley Dodd of Hanover, Va. was first, followed by teammates Against Virginia State, Chowan took the first four positions and sixth for 16-44 to win. Dodd again finished first followed by Ingram,

Help Send Cheerleaders To Nassau

Donations are being sought to help send the Chowan College cheerleaders to Chowan's game against Nassau on Long Island, N.Y. Nov. 8.

The cheerleaders have cheered at all five of Chowan's games to date, including three on the road. But the distance to the Nassau game, almost double that to the average away game, has posed a problem. The donations will be used to pay their travel and expenses, Mrs. Barb Schaefer of Chowan's staff explained.

She said donations may be made to the cheerleaders, Mrs. Janet Collins, or at the college switchboard.
