

ACTIVITY CALENDAR

MONDAY:

- 3:00 p.m. - Film Committee Meeting
- 6:15 p.m. - Swimming, bus leaves from Main Building at 6:15.
- 9:30 p.m. - Girls elect dance representative, Girls' Lobby.
- 10:30 p.m. - Fire Drill

TUESDAY:

- 5:30 p.m. - Student Council Meeting, Cafeteria.
- 8:15 p.m. - Winston-Salem Symphony, Reynolds Auditorium.
- 8:30 p.m. - Seminar, Girls' Dorm, Dr. Cannon.

WEDNESDAY:

- 11:00 a.m. - Faculty Assembly, no student Assembly.
- 1:30 p.m. - College Room Inspection.

THURSDAY:

- 5:30 p.m. - Student Council Meeting, Cafeteria.
- 8:00 p.m. - "A Choreographer's Report," Haynes Auditorium, Salem College. Admission, free.
- 8:15 p.m. - Itzhak Perlman, violinist, Wait Chapel, Wake Forest College.

FRIDAY:

Faculty Recital CANCELLED

SATURDAY:

8:00 p.m. - Discotheque, Cafeteria

SUNDAY:

10:30 a.m. - Bus leaves Main Building for Downtown churches.

LIBRARY...

(continued from Page 1)

The library operates on a budget of $20,000 per fiscal year. This money is provided by the state. Mr. Rush, director of development, continues to endeavor to obtain other sources of financial aid, such as the federal grants.

A faculty library committee will soon be organized for the purpose of selecting books and music for the library. Mr. Van Hoven urges all students to give him any suggestions or requests and says that "the purpose of the library is to serve the school as a whole."

THE N. C. ESSAY STAFF

Sybil Huskeyco-editor
 Tony Senterco-editor

This school newspaper is published weekly at the North Carolina School of the Arts, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, 27107.

NOITCIDARTNOC

Babies have a habit of burping up old boards spiked with whiskey because their mothers always disliked the fact that babies' toenails had the shape of a fried bagel which had been pre-dipped in computer-blood, that incredible fluid which has meant apple pie for spastic telephone biters, those monsters who bite telephones for the pleasure of breaking light bulbs over the heads of fifty cats which haven't been born, yet being born, the cats didn't have heads over which light bulbs could be broken, the result being that pure pleasure from this endeavor couldn't have been received by the telephone biters which ate apple pie, which never did come from computer-blood, and which had no pre-dipped, fried bagel in the shape of babies toenails, although this fact was extremely appreciated by the mothers of the babies who could never have burped up old boards spiked with whiskey.

.....Bruce Stuart

SAT. EVENTS ADD SPARKLE TO WEEK

On Saturday night, October 15, at 8 p.m. there will be a discotheque in the cafeteria. This is the first event in a series of Saturday night activities which will continue throughout the year. The dormitory officials are in charge of these events.

A movie will be shown the first Saturday in each month. Mr. Donovan is in charge of the discotheques for the second Saturday, and Miss Stumph will direct an informal dance on the third Saturday. Mr. Wade has the fourth Saturday which is left open for miscellaneous activities, including bus transportation to town, trips to Whitaker Park, and open houses.

THEATRE NEWS

Noel Coward's "Tonight at 8:30" and Eugene O'Neill's "A Touch of the Poet" will be presented by the National Repertory Theater at Aycock Auditorium, Greensboro, N.C. The performances will be on the evenings of October 17 - 22 at 8:30 p.m. The productions are presented under the Auspices of the Theater Lecture Series of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.