

the PULLOUT

best bet

The Essay choice of Best Bet for this month is the 11th Annual Piedmont Craftsmen's Fair. The work of 150 Craftsmen will be on display for sale or show (depending on your personal financial status) for the first two days of November.

Piedmont Craftsmen, Inc. will hold its Craftsmen's Fair at the Memorial Coliseum in Winston-Salem. Pottery, glass, weaving, enameling, embroidery, woodworking are just a few of the more than 50 different craft forms being exhibited and sold.

The two most popular features of the Fair are back again this year - the Craftsmen's Choice Booth and the demonstration area. The Craftsmen's Choice Booth is the Craftsmen's boasting area - where each participant chooses his best work and displays it with the special pride a craftsman holds for his work.

The demonstration area allows for contentious demonstration of the various crafts, presented by the artists themselves.

If you're free during Nov. 1 or 2, take a jaunt down to the Coliseum. It promises to be a most curious and interesting event.
