

UTHEPULLOUTHEPULLOUTH UTHEPULLOUTHEPULLOUTH

film

Forsyth County Public Library
Tuesday Night Movies - every Tuesday night at the Main Library Auditorium, 660 west 5th Street, at 7:30 p.m., free.
Call 727-2556

November 12 - "1,000 Eyes of Dr.
Mabuse"

November 19 - "The Autobiography of Miss Jane Pittman."

November 26 - "Study in Scarlet"

NCSA FILM SERIES - Every Sunday night in Crawford Hall.

November 17 - "Death in Venice".

November 24 - "All the Kings Men".

December 8 - "The Best of Bogart" and "Superfly".

Taking Off - Wednesday, Thursday,
November 27 and 28, in Hanes Community Center Theater. Sponsored by Film Friends, this film explores the underground world of dropouts.
Considered the best American film of 1971. Call 727-3317.

CAROLINA THEATER - Equinox and Super Dragon. Call 722-8502 for times.

PARKVIEW THEATERS I AND II -
Women in Cell Block No. 7 and The Trial of Billy Jack. Call 784-0220 for times.

PARKWAY THEATER - The Odessa
File. Call 725-5892 for times.

REYNOLDA THEATERS I AND II - I:
The Trial of Billy Jack. II: Tamerind
Seed. Call 723-8711 for times.

THRUWAY THEATER - The Bears
and I and The Shaggy Dog; starts
Friday, November 15 - Conrack. Call 722-3439 for times.

THUNDERBIRD DRIVE-IN - Poor
White Trash and The Playmates. Call 788-5183 for times.

WINSTON THEATER - Airport 1975, running until December 19. Call 723-4585
for times.

music

N.C.S.A. ORCHESTRA CONCERT -
Friday, November 15, at 8:15 p.m. in Crawford Hall. Robert Ward Conducting.

Winston-Salem Symphony Concert -
Tuesday, November 19, at 8:15 in Reynolds Auditorium. Program will feature music for organ, brass, and timpani, including Honnegers' Christmas Cantata, performed with chorus, and Mozart's Symphony No. 40 in G minor. Call 725-1035 for more information.

Annual Barbershop Harmony Show -
Friday, November 22, at 8 p.m. in Salem Fine Arts Center, Salem College.
Presented by the Winston-Salem chapter of Sweet Adelines to benefit the Northwest Ministry Special Interests
Center. Call 924-4874.

Wake Forest Chamber Music Society
Concert - Monday, November 25, 8:15 p.m. in Reynolda House. The NCSA FELLOWSHIP PLAYERS, sponsored by the Wake Forest University Chamber Music Society and Reynolda House. Call 725-5325 or 748-2481 for information and admission.

Elly Ameling, Soprano - Tuesday,
November 25, at 8:15 in Reynolds
Auditorium. Presented by the Winston-Salem Music Association. Call 765-0174
(members or season tickets only).

Handels' Messiah - Sunday, December
1, 3:30 p.m., in Reynolds Auditorium.
Sponsored by the Mozart Club. Call 722-8539 for information.

RECITALS:
Johnny Reinhard, bassoon, December
6 at 8:15 PM in the Recital Hall.

Susan Winthrop, french horn,
December 7 at 8:15 PM in Crawford Hall.

Kathy Hahn, Clarinet, December 10 at 8:15 PM in the Recital Hall.

exhibits

Faculty Art Exhibit - Opening Friday,
November 15, showing through December 12 at Salem Fine Arts Center Galleries, Salem College. From 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. weekdays, and 1 to 9 p.m.
Sundays. Call 723-7961, ext. 313 for information.

Art Exhibition - Mary Goslen.

Sponsored by Art Gallery Originals.
From 2 to 5 p.m. Call 723-9075.

Art Exhibit - By Don Fuller and students. Opens Sunday, November 24, showing through December 6 at the Convalescent Center. Sponsored by the Altrusa Club. Call 768-2339 for information.

dance

The Stanze- Peterson Dancers -
Tuesday, November 12, 8:15 in the Salem Fine Arts Center. Call 725-3563 for ticket information.

rock

"YES" in concert - Sunday, November 24, 8 p.m. at Greensboro Coliseum, with special guest "Cryphon". Tickets $5.50 in advance, $6.50 day of performance.
Tickets available at Reznicks' Records, Thruway. Call 294-2870 for further information.

theatre

THE PRIME OF MISS JEAN BRODIE
- Opens Tuesday, November 13, runs through Sunday, November 17 matinee.
For reservations, go to room 308, Main Administration Bldg. Curtain 8:15 p.m. in the DOME.

Uncle Vanya - Opens Wednesday
November 13, runs through Saturday November 23, except for the 17th and 18th. Time is 8:15 in Studio 8 East, Z.
Smith Reynolds Library. Presented by Wake Forest University Theatre. Call
725-9711 ext. 265.

Inherit the Wind - November 15-17 and 19-24 at 8:15 in the Hanes Community
Theater. Presented by the Little Theatre.
Call 725-4001. (Check HAPPENINGS for date of special performance for NCSA students.)

Don Juan in Hell - Thursday,
November 21, at 8:15 in Wait Chapel Auditorium. Dramatic reading by Ricardo Montalban, Edward Mulhare, Kurt Kaszner and Myrna Loy. Sponsored by Wake Forest University Artists Series. Call 725-9711 ext. 410.

various & sundry

The first five of the following events are on Tuesday, November 12.

Lecture by David Toma - 8:15 p.m. in Wait Chapel at Wake Forest University.
David Toma is the Newark detective whose exploits are the basis for the ABC
T.V. show "TOMA".

Piedmont Lecturer - Prof. Lamar P.
Miller, of New York University, 1 p.m. at the Salem College Fine Arts Center
Drama Workshop. Call 723-7961.

Museum Lectures - Museum of Early
Southern Decorative Arts, 8 p.m., 924 South Main Street. On "The lesser decorative arts objects as used in Charleston homes prior to 1820".

Lecture and Discussion on the Drawings of John White - Reynolda
House, 8 p.m. Lecturer Doug Waldorf, Director of Roanoke Island Historical Park. Call 725-5325.

LECTURE, A NEW LOOK AT REMBRANDT AND VERMEER - 8 p.m. at Hanes Community Center Gallery.
Lecturer Penny Griffin; a regular monthly meeting of Associated Artists of Winston-Salem. Call 765-1849.

SEMINAR - Wednesday, November 13, 7:30 p.m. in the south wing of the Main Hall, Salem College. "Feminist Movement: Alternatives." Call 723-7961,
ext. 313.

Lecture, WHAT ARE THE ARTISTS
OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY
SAYING? - At Reynolda House
Thursday, November 14. Lecturers: Mrs.
Frances Mudge, curator of the Emily
Dickinson Home; and Dr. Cyclone
Covey, WFU. Call 725-5325.

Annual HOLIDAY SALE - Saturday,
November 16, 10 a.m. - 9 p.m. at Benton Convention Centers. Sponsored by Winston-Salem Crafts Guild. Call 723-0448.

MISS WINSTON-SALEM PAGEANT - Saturday November 30, 8 p.m. in Reynolds Auditorium. Sponsored by Winston-Salem Jaycees. Call 722-7466.

freebies

See Dave Belnap if you are interested in attending the following, admission
free:

Winston-Salem Symphony Concert -
(see under MUSIC)

Free tickets and transportation.

Don Juan in Hell - (See under THEATRE) free tickets.

Elly Ameling, Soprano - (See under MUSIC) Free tickets and transportation.

Taking Off - (See under FILM) Free tickets.

REMEMBER: Dave Belnap also has discount tickets for the Thruway, Winston, Carolina, and Thunderbird drive in theaters. These tickets cost just $1.25, giving a big 50 per cent of the normal admission. They're good at all ABC theaters anytime, except for road shows, special attractions and late shows. A good deal!

IMPORTANT - There will be free transportation to the "YES" concert. See Happenings for the time of departure.