

Pilewski to Represent United States

by Tim Eshelman

Methodist College golfer, Rob Pilewski, has added another honor to his already long list of achievements. He has been chosen to play on the U. S. golf team in the United States-Japan matches June 7-14 in Japan.

Pilewski was the only Division III player to be named to the team. "To be the only Division III player is quite an honor and a privilege," he said. "I feel very honored to be a part of it."

Pilewski a senior at Methodist, is a Business Administration and Golf Management major. He has already been named to the All-American team three times, and he won the Division III Individual Golf Championship in 1990.

Pilewski's current stroke average is 75, and his best round shot is a 68. So far this season, he has two second-place finishes and a sixth place finish.

Senior Rob Pilewski has played an integral part on the Methodist College Golf Team.
