

MC Cheer

 said she owed her success to Coach Hill "He's a hardworking coach who teaches not only cheerleading but life lessons. Rickey Hill's dedication to his team is obvious. Just this year Rickey spent $4,000 out of his pocket on new uniforms for the team, which they wore to Nationals.

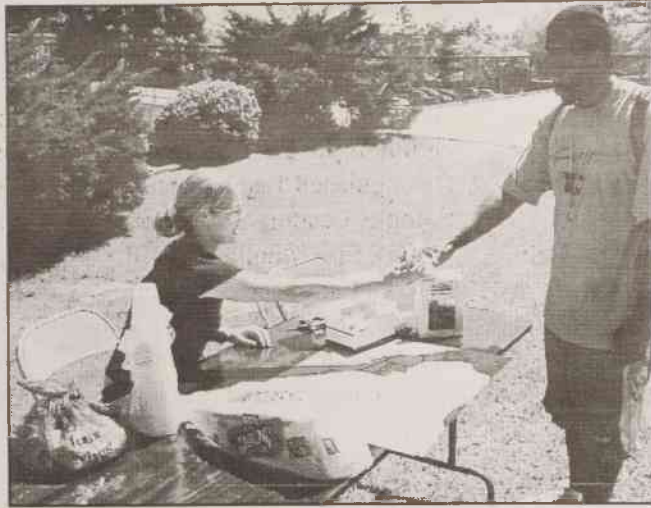

"This year's trip was the best trip I have ever had with a team" said Hill. At the beginning of year he had the team set individual and team goals. Overall the goal for the team was to hit the routine with no regrets and to make it look good. "Competing at Nationals is not for me, it's for the kids, it's up to them if they go or not" said Hill. With that in mind and a team motto of "Hard work to win" this team has no regrets. Dylan Reed said, "If you think this year was good, watch out for what's to come next year".

First-ever 'Good Deeds Award' coincides with Random Acts of Kindness

By John W. Arnold III

As students walked behind Burns Student Center on Wednesday, April 2, members of SGA who were offering free doughnuts and orange juice during its "Random Acts of Kindness" campaign greeted them.

Doing something nice on campus for nothing? As odd as it may sound, it's true. Several students I witnessed looked confused as Courtney Bull shouted "Free doughnuts!"

Bull said, "I just want to give people a good day and show we [SGA] are here for the students." SGA's acts are uncommon and commendable: just the reason they are being awarded the first ever "Good Deeds Award," which is sponsored by Methodist College Student Media.

If you witness an organization on campus doing a good deed, make sure you let us know. Call us at 630-7292 and let us know what good deed is going down.
