

ST. AGNES

There is only one regret on the part of the nurses in regard to the celebration of the holidays, and that is that we could not have entertained the entire campus as we attempted to entertain, as best we knew how, those few that participated in the social and nurses' christmas tree.

The social was very much a success. The "Capital City Aces" were at their best, it seems. The reception room of the Nurses' Home was simply decorated in the Christmas colors, the orchestra being fenced off behind a quaint arrangement of holly and cedar. Everyone expressed himself as having had a wonderful time.

Guests of honor: Mrs. Frances A. Worrall, R.N., The Misses Jackson, Jones, Telfair, Corbett, Jefferson, Levister, Saxon and Barkley. Miss E. Grayson, Prof. Wells and Miss H. L. Rollins of New York.

Miss Mary Bartlette of Orange, N. J., one of our Freshmen, was called home to the bedside of her father, who passed away January 14. We are expecting Miss Barlette to return to us as soon as possible and continue her training.

OBSERVANCE OF INSTITUTE WEEK

From January 8 to 13 Institute Week was observed. During this week the students were addressed by various persons who outlined the work of the American church Institute for Negroes.

The American church Institute for Negroes is a corporation of the Protestant Episcopal Church. It helps finance nine Negro schools. The work of the Institute is carried on by the Director, the Rev. R. W. Patton, D.D., and his Associate Director, Rev. C. E. Bentley. Dr. Wallace A. Battle is the able Field Secretary of the Church Institute.

During Institute Week several of our students told of their experiences at other Institute schools. These speakers were the Misses Vera Gang, Rebecca Greene and Alice Perry, and Mr. R. E. Blunt. The Misses Ruth Edwards and Edith Chisholm spoke about the activities of the Tuttle School in carrying on the ideals of the Institute. The week was wound up with talks presented by the Misses W. Lucille Zimmerman and Mary B. Bartlett of the St. Agnes Training School for Nurses.

HAVE YOU HEARD?

Shhh—the "Charlottes" are back. We heard C. G. telling M. C. how affectionately she greeted J. J. while D. T. looked on. This is no triangle, it is a square.

E. P. was that you we saw sitting with R. E. at the St. Paul Game? Did M. D. like it? Whose picture did we see on D. W.'s table last week?

R. B. we heard that you didn't know who A. F. was but C. D. will tell you.

L. P. stayed in all afternoon while G. S. entertained a friend from home

THE GARDEN CLUB

Did You Know—that two years ago under the supervision of Professor A. P. Chippey there was organized on the campus a Garden Club? The Club has been fortunate in broadcasting its purposes over Station WPTF, it has been able to plant these purposes during the spring but unable to find a caretaker for them during the summer. We wish and aim to make our campus more beautiful and have planned a program for that purpose.

A special meeting was held December 14, 1933 in the Cheshire Building for the purpose of taking in new members. We were grateful to Mrs. E. H. Goold and Mrs. M. M. Latham for their presence and desire to aid the club in forwarding its program. Both of the ladies brought to the club new ideas of which the club anticipates making use.

We regretted that Mrs. Evans who has been of much service to the club was unable to attend the meeting.

The young ladies, taken in as new members: Misses Stella Jones, Edna Baker, Mary Perry, Janice Albury, Clara Jackson, Alice Perry, Gertrude Arthur, Adele Dent, Kathleen Williams, Wilma Levister and Theola Ford. All expressed their willingness to support the club and their appreciation of the invitation extended them.

During an "Uproar of My Mother's Flowers," refreshments were served through the kindness of Mrs. Latham.

The meeting adjourned with words of encouragement from Professor Chippey.

but came out that night. Don't be bashful, L. P.

S. W. lifted E. A. right out of the arms of the two seniors C. J. and T. J. tish! tsh! tsh! If you have not heard, the latest couple is M. C. and D. P. L.

We would like to hear more of the F. C. and I. M. A. affair. How're you doing?

Sister, did you hear that A. P. has a crush J. M., and entertain L. B.? Poor S. J. and G. A.!

But anyway, come up'n see us sometimes.

Amen.

Gert: Every time I raise my hand Almira gives me a beating.

Cora: Why don't you tell the matron?

Gert: What does she know about bridge?

FRESHMAN CLASS

Well, two eight weeks have passed away, never to return again. What a pity, for some will surely long for those very days more than once! Some classes are having a tough struggle, but hope to emerge all the more intelligent. But it seems as though the Freshmen are suffering the most. Theirs is a mournful tone. They say:

Miss Boyd and Mr. Chippey are our teachers, they say we shall not pass.

They maketh* us show our ignorance before our fellow students. They assigneth us more than we can learn,

They lowered our grades. Yea, though we walk through the valley of knowledge we learn not. They fireth questions at us in the presence of our classmates.

PREPARATORY BULLETIN

The Junior "Preps" have been asked a number of times by some of the worthy members of the Senior Class if they are going to give the Seniors a banquet.

The Juniors may be small in number, but they are a very dynamic assembly. It is useless to ask because it is a secret as well as a mystery.

Wait and see!

They anointed our heads with exams; our fountain pens runneth over.

Surely verbs and drawings shall follow us through all the days of our life and we shall remain in college forever. Amen!
