

TABLE CHATTER

He looked at her longingly,
 As breakfast was nearly o'er;
 And spoke the words of music
 He spoke and the words came from his soul—
 "Darling, will you please pass another roll?"

—Harry Johnson

—FRIENDSHIP

Thanks for the friendly clasp
 That makes my heart seem light.
 Thanks for the broad smile —
 That makes my life worthwhile.
 When my day seems blue
 I can turn to you.
 On your shoulder so square
 My burdens you shall share.
 That's what a friend would do,
 Would you?
 That's what your friendship means to me.

—Blonnie Slade

Note— Coach Weatherford has announced that there will be a spring football practice session this year.
