

and Miss Evelyn Johnson as Miss St. Agnes, paid their respects to the Queen with bouquets during the coronation ceremonies.

But back to the sports trail. After Bluefield cancelled the Saint-Blues game, Norfolk was chosen. Last week the Saints journeyed up there but the price of bacon was too high so they left it there. In an upset the Saints bowed 12-0.

But now all of that is gone with the wind. Saturday it is the Saints and the Bears. Our boys are back to normal and we may expect a thrilling game; but I am not going out on a limb for the Saints. The results should be known.

But to all the Saint: a plaque for their splendid record this season and for their spirit.

To Capt. Harry Johnson: a bouquet for his crafty leadership and his inspiration to the team.

To the Seniors on the squad: Thanks, Messrs. Johnson, Bembry, Fox, Marshall, Atkins, Sadler, and Johnson, you have given your best and St. Aug. is proud to know you as hers.

CAMPUS JIVE

Heard On The Campus:

Has the last breakfast bell rung yet?

Open the door, the first bell has rung.

Hey, Butch. Any seconds?

Shall I cut chapel again today?

Has the mail been given out yet?

Next on that duck.

Got a match? I just borrowed a duck.

Please lend me your stocking cap.

Hey, boy, let me have some hair grease.

Lend me a penny, I need to buy a three-cent stamp.

One freshman sees another submerged under a pile of books.

"What are you doing?" asks the the first. "Chippeyology" comes the reply.

Who swiped my girl's picture?

What! No dirt in the "Pen" this year? That's all I read it for.

HERE 'TIS

Imagine Pete White scoring two touchdowns in one game.

And did you see what I saw? The "Gate" selling bottles to make the show.

What Lloyd Allen! Cut out again?

And do you see the Jones and the Margo still playing it "jammed up?"

But don't forget Charlie Howell and his Velma. Whats the song this year Charlie?

Which reminds me, between mouthfuls at the table, I can hear Capt. Easley softly hummin "I've Fallen In Love With Someone."
