

HAVE YOU MET—

By JACK HALSEY

Howard Pullen, a native of Raleigh, who was born on March 17, 1922, and is the only child of his parents. He received his early education at the Lucille Hunter School, St. Monica, and Washington High School.

Pullen possessed a keen interest in sports and started on his career at the Tuttle Community Center. Through the courtesy of Mr. Bernice Taylor, he has followed the athletic activities of the St. Augustine's Horses since 1929.

Pullen is a part-time Social Studies and Physical Education major. He entered St. Augustine's College in 1939 and he has been an active member of various varsity teams throughout his college period, holding a letter in three sports—football, basketball, and track. Pullen states that he likes football best of all sports, because of its roughness, and prefers reading the sports page and attending "Gym" during his leisure time. He has been captain of the basketball team for two years, and he is also president of the Chancellors Club.

His interest in athletics can be seen in the fact that he hopes to become an athletic director and would enjoy playing on a Negro semi-professional football team. In this, his last year of undergraduate athletic activities, Pullen hopes to lead his team to a CIAA championship.

Gossip

To say, "Everyone is talking about him," is a eulogy; but to say, "Everyone is talking about her," is an elegy.

—Anonymous.

The years that a woman subtracts from her age are not lost; they are added to the ages of other women.

What They Think About Men

People are funny; they can see a man every day for twenty years, know his face, mannerisms, idiosyncrasies; but they've only to hear that his wife has left him, or that he's shot his mother-in-law, and they'll stand for hours waiting for a glimpse of him.—LEOL YEO.

Conceit is God's gift to little men.

—BRUCE BARTON.