

Alpha Kappa Alpha

Gamma Xi Chapter of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority extends a warm welcome to all freshmen and new students, and hopes that no matter what extra-curricular activities you engage in while here, you will not forget your main purpose for being at Saint Augustine's College.

Many plans have been made by Gamma Xi for this school term which will not only be conducive to the Chapter, but to the college and community as well. The members who have been working so diligently to carry out these plans are as follows: Basileus Sharon D. Harris, Savannah, Georgia; Anti-Basileus, Barbara Lewis, Rocky Mount; Myrtice Beacot, Raleigh, N. C.; Doris Williams, Raleigh, N. C.; Gwendolyn Sims, Spray, N. C.; Jeanette DeBose, Gainesville, Florida; Maybelle Barden, Kenansville, N. C.; Soror Juliet Williams, Griffon, N. C.; and Soror Anna Martin, Brunswick, Georgia. Other members of Gamma Xi are Sorors Anzella King, Sandra Hicks, Laverne Solomon, Maxine Thomas, Lossie Davis, and Annie Wilson, all of Raleigh, N. C. and Mary McNeil of Godwin, N. C.

The members of Gamma Xi are elated to have again as their advisor for this school year, Soror E. M. Eason, a member of the faculty here at Saint Augustine's College.

Gamma Xi wishes to commend all of the seven 1962 graduates. We are happy to announce that Soror Anzella King, who is cadet teaching here in Raleigh, is a member of the Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society. Soror Juliet Williams is a member of the Phi Kappa Alpha Honor Society, Soror Sandra Hicks, who is also cadet teaching here in Raleigh, is "Miss May Queen" for 1963-64, and Miss Sharon D. Harris is "Miss Alpha Phi Alpha" for 1963-64. Gamma Xi also ranked third in a recent survey made of the academic standards of the 8 Greek letter organizations on campus.

Alpha Kappa Alpha is striving onward, always keeping in mind the ideals of scholarship, leadership, womanhood, character, and service.

Sigma Gamma Rho

The members of the Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority would like to extend a wonderful welcome to all freshmen and new students. We wish you a very happy and prosperous year in your many endeavors.

Our present members are: Sorors Aurelia Jones, Cassie Plummer, Ruth Moore and Barbara Morgan. Soror Morgan attended the Boule in Denver, Colorado.

The Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority was founded in 1922 at Butler University, Indianapolis, Indiana. This sorority places emphasis on the development of finer character, womanhood, scholarship and leadership. To implement its aims, the Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority has undertaken many projects, such as the Leadership Training Program and Teen-Town, supervised by qualified persons.

The purpose of this sorority for women is expressed in its slogan: Greater Service, Greater Progress.

The Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, because of its achievements, has gained recognition on the national, as well as on the international level. We are especially proud to acknowledge our sorors on the Continent of Africa.

We will also like to give recognition to our pledges: Auroras Katie L. Williams, Mary McClaw and Lula Davis. We wish these girls much success through the "burning sands."

A hearty greeting to each and everyone from the Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority.

Zeta Highlights

The members of Phi Beta Chapter, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority are prepared to launch another school year. Even though most of us are still talking about our annual Boule which was held in Miami, Florida this year, we are finally able to get plans made.

Each year the Greek-letter organizations plan some type of entertainment for the incoming freshmen and new students. In upholding this tradition, we planned a "Zeta Rendezvous," a night of fun and entertainment for the young ladies and a fashion show for the benefit of the UNCF. The fashions for this affair were contributed by Emma Jane's Dress Shop of Raleigh.

This promises to be a very busy year for Zeta, but we are prepared to get the show on the road.

Dateline Delta

The Gamma Rho Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority wishes to welcome the student body, both old and new to Saint Augustine's.

For this year, Gamma Rho Chapter is under the leadership of Soror Marian Watford, who is serving her second term. The sorority also has a new co-advisor, Mrs. Mary Guines, who has joined the faculty of Saint Augustine's College in the Education Department.

Delta is proud to have as Miss Saint Augustine's College one of its members: Soror Angela Baker. She will reign over the homecoming activities, November 2.

Delta Sigma Theta has several activities for student participation, keeping in mind public service, finer womanhood and scholarship.

We encourage all students to put the best foot forward, striving to achieve academic excellence.

Omega

The men of Kappa Epsilon Chapter, keeping in pace with the academic and social challenges of our college and society has set up a promising agenda for this semester. It includes: the completion of the sundial, the collecting of food stuffs for the welfare of the Raleigh people, and benefits to aid U. N. C. F.

To carry out our agenda for this semester, we have as members the following: Claude Verbal, James Robinson, Roalh Aarons, Douglas Scarboro, Stephen Hurst, Joseph Cutchins, Bennie Mack, Frederick Douglas, James Ashton, Alfred Toles, and William Birchett.

According to tradition we recently selected our Court of Beauty. The Omegas chose lovely Miss Lugenia Rochelle to be Miss Omega Psi Phi. Miss Rochelle, a native of Maple Hill, North Carolina, is a junior majoring in French. Her two attendants are Miss Sheila Brown, a native of Atlantic City, New Jersey, and Miss Margie Wilson, a native of Bayside Virginia. We know that these young ladies will live up to the true spirit of Omega keeping in pace with the academic and social challenges of the school.

In keeping with our four cardinal principles: scholarship, manhood, perseverance, and uplift, the Brothers of Omega Psi Phi wish you a successful school year.

Alpha Phi Alpha

The men of the Gamma Psi Chapter of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity takes this opportunity to welcome all freshmen and new students to our college community.

We are confident that your decision to matriculate at this institution will prove beneficial to you as well as to the college. We know that you will contribute greatly to the academic environment, not neglecting the social climate of this institution of higher learning.

The Brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha welcome all the returning members of the Sphinx Club as well as the many friends of Gamma Psi. We know that these nobly academicians and aspirants to Alphanom will continue to strive for that academic excellence, which has been exemplified by the men of Alpha.

We are also confident that our Little Brothers, Octavius Rowe, Theodore Brown, Richard Peterson, Vernon McClean, John Larkins, Charles Simpson, Cornelius Hubbard, Enoch Henderson, Eric May, and James Manson will contribute highly to the intellectual environment of our college as they strive for Alphanom.

Herbert Smith

Kappa Korner

The Gamma Omicron Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, inc., extends greetings to the freshmen and new students. In extending our greetings, we wish you to have the most fruitful year at Saint Augustine's College.

We feel that in order for a student to have a successful year he must make a sincere attempt to get excellence. It is quite evident that happiness is derived from well-earned achievement. To the men of Kappa Alpha Psi, achievement is the attainment of all the educational, social, economic, religious and physical knowledge possible.

The Brothers of our Chapter who have returned to further their achievements are Everett Kelly, Vernie Grady, Samuel Johnson, James Mable, Spottwood Bolling, Thomas Hargrove and Henry Sanders.

The Brothers began the year by unanimously electing Miss Emily Stevens as our Sweetheart for the year 1963-64.

We, the men of Kappa Alpha Psi shall endeavor to serve the student body even more fully this coming year.

High School Scholars Program

Dr. Walter Daniel with participants in High School Scholar's Program

Saint Augustine's College held the opening session of its High School Scholars Program on Wednesday evening, October 16, 1963, in the Cheshire Lounge. Dr. Walter C. Daniel, Coordinator of the project which the College calls "An Experiment in Intellectual Enrichment," began the lecture-discussion series with "How does a Poem Mean?" an examination of John Milton's "On

His Blindness" and Countee Cullen's "Yet Do I Marvel."

Sixty superior high school students drawn from senior classes at Raleigh and surrounding areas have been invited to participate in the program. Weekly meetings are held in which the students, with a guest lecturer, discuss ideas which have influenced man's knowledge.

Other lecturers slated to speak to the scholars are Mr. Robert A. Smithey, a member of Saint Augustine's English faculty, and Dr. Elmer Schwertman, of Saint Augustine's Department of History. The program will also feature outside lecturers who are authorized in their specific fields.

This project is in its fourth year, having been initiated by Dean P. R. Robinson.

Phi Beta Sigma

Beta Xi Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc., wishes to extend a hearty welcome to all freshmen and new students at Saint Augustine's College. The members of Sigma, keeping their motto, "Culture for Service and Service to Humanity" in mind, stand ready to aid you at all times in any way possible.

Our officers are: Chester Fisher, president; Reuben Coward, vice-president; Lattie Baker, secretary; Clarence Branch, treasurer, and Donza Olds, dean of pledges.

According to tradition, the members of Phi Beta Sigma have selected their sweetheart for the year 1963-64. Miss Portia Jameson of Shelby, North Carolina is the recipient of this title.

May the coming school year be a prosperous and fruitful one for all.

A Prayer To Live By

Lord Thou knowest better than I know my self;
 For I'm growing older, and will someday be old.
 Keep me from getting talkative, and particularly from the fatal habit of thinking I must say something on every subject, on every occasion.
 Release me from craving to try to straighten out everybody's affairs.
 Keep my mind free from a recital of endless details.
 Give me wings to get to the point. I ask for Grace enough to hear the tales of other's pains,
 Help me to endure them with patience.
 But seal my lips on my own aches and pains,
 They are increasing, and my love is rehearsing them in becoming sweeter as the years go by . . .
