

Newspaper Editing
1986 Summer Intern
 Programs for College Students

The $6,000 Summer

50 newspapers offer internships

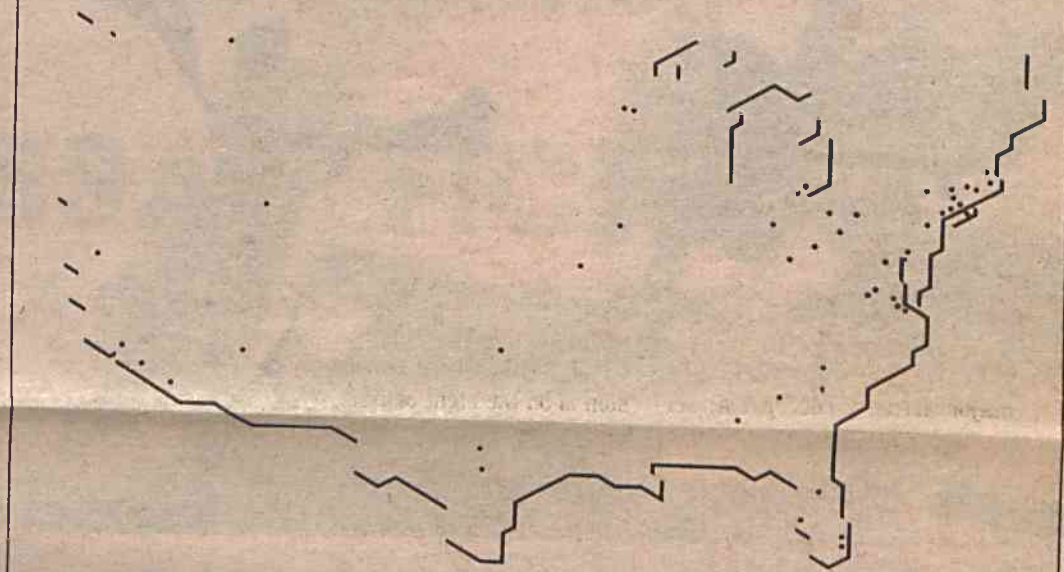

Two Programs

... Minority Editing Intern
 Program for College Seniors

... Newspaper Editing Intern
 Program for College Juniors

Average Wage (10 weeks)	$2,500
Training Grant	2,500
Scholarship (minimum)	1,000
TOTAL	$6,000

Location of Newspapers That Hire Interns

Program details

- Guaranteed paid summer jobs
- All positions on newspaper or news service copy desks (general news, features, sports)
- Free editing training seminar
- Scholarship at the end of the summer

Application forms available from:

- Your college journalism department and/or placement office
- Your editing professor, college newspaper adviser, SPJ, SDX chapter, campus minority organizations
- The Dow Jones Newspaper Fund
 P.O. Box 300
 Princeton, N.J. 08540
 (609) 452-2820

Goal of the program

- To prepare college students for careers as newspaper editors and managers

Application deadlines

- Request application form by October 31, 1985
- Return "Controlled Writing/Editing Exercise" request postcard as soon as application is received
- Deadline for completed applications and evaluations is Thanksgiving Day (November 28, 1985)

The Dow Jones Newspaper Fund has operated intern programs for college students for 25 years.