

ALUMNI NEWS

The St. Augustine's Record plans to give in its columns, from time to time, brief biographical sketches of many of its living alumni. The material will be taken from circulars that were sent to all graduates. If you have not received a circular send for one at once. If you have received one and not returned it, please do so at once.

George H. Williams, '82, Fayetteville, N. C., has the distinction of being the oldest living alumnus of St. Augustine's, according to our records. He graduated from the high school department in 1879 and the collegiate department 1882.

Simon G. Atkins, '84, A.M., LL.D., President of Teachers College, Winston-Salem, N. C., always finds time to make at least an annual visit to our campus. Francis L. Atkins, his son, was elected President of the N. C. Negro College Association which met here last month.

Mrs. Nannie James Logan Delany, '85, widow of the late Rt. Rev. H. B. Delany, and for many years school matron, resides now in New York City. Delany Building, the college girls dormitory, is named in her honor.

Mrs. Ophelia T. Griffin, '91, and Prof. Alfred J. Griffin, '92, are located in High Point, N. C. Several of their children have attended school here.

Rev. John R. Brooks, '92, has filled charges in Maryland, Virginia, Georgia and Alabama. He is now located at the Church of the Redeemer, East St. Louis, Ill. and St. Michael's Church, Cairo, Ill.

Rev. John Brown Elliott, '97, D.D., is an Archdeacon of the Diocese of Upper South Carolina. He is always in attendance at the Conference for Clergy and Church Workers held annually at the end of the school year. He can be reached through General Delivery, Columbia, S. C.

Thaddeus P. Martin, '98, M.D., has just taken up his new residence at 1026 Buchanan Street, Topeka, Kansas. Dr. Martin returned to the campus to witness the graduation of his daughter, Mrs. Gladys E. Hoover, from the Bishop Tuttle Training School in 1928. His son is a lay reader in St. Simon's Church in Topeka.

Rev. Milton Moran Weston, '99, Ph.B., B.D., has his oldest daughter, Catherine Cornelia Weston, in attendance at the Bishop Tuttle School in the senior class. His son, Milton, '28, will complete his work at the Philadelphia Divinity School next June. Rev. Mr. Weston is Rector of St. Luke's Church in Tarboro, N. C.

Rev. Samuel W. Grice, '01, and Mrs. Susan M. Rhone Grice, '01, have graduated two of their children from St. Augustine's. Rev. Mr. Grice is a trustee of St. Augustine's College. For twenty-one years he was Warden of the Bishop Payne Divinity School, Petersburg, Va. At present he is Vicar of St. Cyprian's Church in New York City.

John Magnus Pollard, '01, is Director of the Niagara Community Center, Niagara Falls, N. Y. He makes his home at 66 Garrow St., Auburn, N. Y.

William Augustine Perry, '02, is the author and composer of St. Augustine's College hymn. It was dedicated when St. Augustine's became a four-year standard college and is sung by the student body on special religious festival holidays and the annual commencement.

Mrs. Mary Ada Jackson Perry, '02, wife of Rev. Robert N. Perry, of Thomasville, Ga., has two of her children in attendance here at the college. William M., '32, graduated last year. Alice Louise, '34, entered this year's junior class after finishing the Junior College at Fort Valley School. John Logan, '36, entered the freshman class.

Rev. John W. Herritage, '05, D.D., Rector of St. Joseph's Church, Fayetteville, N. C., is president of the Alumni Association of St. Augustine's College. He is an associate member of the department of Religious Education, Diocese of East Carolina, and president of the conference of Colored Church Workers, Province of Sewanee, 1925-1928. His son, John W., Jr., '32, is a freshman in the Meharry Medical School. His daughter, Effie Irene, '33, is a member of this year's senior college class.

Ada Speight, '05, returned to the campus and took the course of Social Work at the Bishop Tuttle School. She completed her work with the class of 1932 and is now in social service at St. Philip's mission, Hawkinsville, Ga.

Mrs. Edna Paul Pearson, '05, is a teacher in the Dean Street School, Spartanburg, S. C. She is an active worker in the Epiphany Mission Church whose Rector is Rev. James B. Brown.

Rev. Robert Josiah Johnson, '06, D.D., is Priest-in-charge of St. Mary's Church, Hot Springs National Park, Ark. His oldest son Robert Albert, '35, is a varsity member of the football, basketball and tennis teams. This year's freshman class was augmented by another son James Edward, '36, and Jerome Gardner, a friend from Arkansas.

Rev. James King Satterwhite, '06, is Rector of St. Elizabeth's Church, La Grange, Ga. He has formerly held charges in Raleigh, N. C.; Greensboro, N. C.; Winston-Salem, N. C.; Jacksonville, Fla.; Okolona, Miss., and Detroit, Mich.

Nellie Andrews Ligon, '06, is now located at 1750 Cedar Ave., College Hill, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mrs. Susan Mabel James Perry, '08, is the wife of Wm. A. Perry, '02. Her oldest daughter, Mabel Elizabeth, is a senior in the Bishop Tuttle School for Social Workers. Mrs. Perry is an active worker in St. Luke's Church, Columbia, S. C. The Rector is Rev. Isaac I. McDonald.