

FACULTY AND STAFF

President Goold attended the recent meeting of the Regional Conference of the Association of American Colleges held in Atlanta, Ga.

During the summer he visited and preached at a number of parishes, including Grace Church, Norfolk, Virginia; St. Barnabas Church, Brooklyn, N. Y.; St. Stephen's Church, Jamaica, N. Y.; Church of the Incarnation, Jersey City, New Jersey; St. Ambrose Church, New York, and Grace Church, Plainfield, New Jersey.

Dean Charles H. Boyer attended the meeting of the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools for Negroes, held at Nashville, Tenn., in November.

Prof. Percy Young has returned to his duties in the Education Department after a year of study toward the Ph.D. degree at Harvard University. Mrs. Young has resumed her duties in physical education.

Dean Mabel L. Latham, Prof. L. T. Caldwell, Mrs. Julia Delany, and Miss Alleen Pitts attended the summer session at Columbia University during the vacation. Prof. R. L. Lynch was at Pennsylvania State College, and Miss Jessie E. Guernsey, professor of History, took courses at the University of Colorado. Miss Mary Elizabeth Johnson was at Oberlin, and Miss E. Doreen Frost, professor of English, visited places of interest in England. Athletic Director George H. Mitchell was in charge of an E.R.A. recreation project in Raleigh. Prof. Theodora R. Boyd continued her studies at Harvard. Prof. Thomas Countee was on the summer school faculty of Philander Smith College, Little Rock, Ark.

Miss Dorothy G. Williams joined the staff this year as librarian. Miss Williams is a graduate of Hunter College and Simmons College, and was formerly librarian at Samuel Houston College, in Texas.

Prof. Arthur P. Chippey has visited the Negro parishes and missions of the Diocese in the interest of the Diocesan program. Prof. Chippey is a member of the Diocesan Executive Committee and the Finance Committee.

Prof. Lloyd L. Woods has been joined this year by Mrs. Woods and his little daughter, Elaine, who came from their Kansas home to spend the school year in Raleigh.

Mrs. Lillian Brinton, M.A. (University of North Carolina), and formerly an instructor at the University of North Carolina, has been added to the faculty, and is giving a course in educational sociology.

RECORD NOTES

(Continued from Page 1)

National Education Week was fittingly observed at St. Augustine's. Mr. Clyde A. Erwin, North Carolina's Superintendent of Public Instruction, delivered a splendid chapel address. The services of Mr. Erwin were secured by Prof. Percy Young, head of our Education Department. The thought of Education Week was further emphasized in the sermon of the President on November 17.

Miss Nell Battle Lewis was the guest speaker at the chapel service on the Sunday preceding Armistice Day. That the application of the principles taught by Jesus Christ was the only way to world peace was the theme of her address. The late Dr. R. H. Lewis, the father of Miss Lewis, was for many years a member of the Board of Trustees of St. Augustine's College. Another member of her family, Dr. Kemp Battle, once president of the University of North Carolina, was one of the incorporators of St. Augustine's in 1867.

ALUMNI NEWS

Of the class of 1935: Eric Clarke and Humphrey Bond are attending Meharry Medical College; Fernando Oger is teaching in the high school at Spring Hope, N. C.; Miss Kathleen Williams is engaged in teaching in Savannah, Ga., and Miss Adele Dent is in the same work in Brunswick, Ga., her home town. Miss Stella Jones is also teaching in her home town, Asheville, N. C.

Mrs. Okay C. Finch is in the public school system of Littleton, N. C., where her husband, A. L. Finch, '32, is principal of the high school. Helen Harris is on the high school faculty at Gastonia, N. C.; James Mask is on the staff of the Morrison Training School for Negro Boys, at Hoffman, N. C.; Almira Kennedy is in the Hamlet, N. C., high school.

Lemuel Eugene Graves, Jr., '34, is an important member of the staff of the Norfolk Journal and Guide.

(Continued on Page 4)