

ALUMNI NEWS

Mary Clifton, '36, is employed on a WPA research project under the auspices of the Y.W.C.A. of Montclair, N. J. Mrs. Amanda Freeman Garris and John Perry, of the same class, are doing recreation work in Raleigh.

John J. Hannibal, '36, is a medical student at Meharry, where he joined a colony of five or six recent graduates of St. Augustine's, including Howard Henderson, Arnold Joseph, Humphrey Bond, John W. Herritage, Jr., and Eric Clarke.

The following marriages have been reported since the last issue of the RECORD:

Miss Ruth Ward, '33, to Robert Jones, H.S. '31.

Miss Katie Lou Haywood, '34, to Charles D. Keck, '35.

Leo. L. Oxley, '35, has entered the Law School of Howard University. Alma Herndon, '34, has been appointed to the faculty of Washington High School, Raleigh.

The RECORD regrets to report the death of Mrs. Harriet Boyce, '18, in Burgaw, N. C., on July 28. She was the eldest daughter of Dean Charles H. Boyer.

PROSPECTIVE ALUMNI

Born since the last issue of the RECORD: to Cecil ('33) and Nellie Brewington ('34) Coble, a daughter, Ann; to Matthew ('37) and Olivia Browning ('35) Jones, a son, Matthew, Jr.

Dr. Edson G. Blackman, '14, president of the Alumni Association, made an address at the formal opening exercises in September. The eldest son of Dr. Blackman, Edson, Jr., is a member of this year's freshman class.

On the Saturday evening radio programs of the Hampton Institute musical organizations Charles Flax, '27, has been the soloist. Mr. Flax made an enviable record last year at the Eastman School of Music, Rochester, New York. He was featured there also as a baritone soloist.

Rev. Bravid W. Harris, '17, rector of Grace Church, Norfolk, Va., recently made a radio address in Raleigh, in connection with a "Negro Achievement Week" program, sponsored by the Omega Psi Phi fraternity, of which he is a member.

Noted among those attending the Atlanta conference were, Rev. and Mrs. St. Julian Simpkins, Rev. Eugene Avery, and Mrs. Oscar Holder, all alumni of St. Augustine's.

Among those elected to office at the Conference of Church Workers in the Province of Sewanee were, Rev. James K. Satterwhite, '06, vice-president, and Rev. H. J. C. Bowden, '21, secretary. Rev. John E. Culmer was re-elected president.

Frank K. Davis, Robert B. Sullivan, Lawrence Scales, Edna Baker and Emma Perry, all of the class of 1936, are attending the Bishop Tuttle School.

Vera Gang, '35, Bishop Tuttle, '36, and Helen Harris, '35, are in the graduate school of Boston University. Miss Gang was admitted with advanced standing, in consideration of her credits from Bishop Tuttle School. Miss Harris writes: "I have just received word of passing the language requirements for my degree, and have been admitted on my credentials (St. Augustine's College transcript) without deficiencies."

Several of the graduates of last year are engaged in teaching. The names and location of the following are among those reported to the RECORD:

Oliver Denning, Beaufort, N. C.

Cora Duren, Camden, S. C.

Woodrow Jacobs, Whiteville, N. C.

John Jones, Rowland, N. C.

Ann Morgan Oxley, Laurinburg, N. C.

Mary Perry, Lumberton, N. C.

Lula Pearl Thorpe, Garner, N. C.

John C. Davis, '32, who was graduated last May from Bishop Payne Divinity School, was ordained deacon in September by Bishop Gribbin, of the diocese of Western North Carolina. The service was held in St. Matthias' Church, Asheville, where the Rev. Mr. Davis is in charge. Louis Baskervill, H. S. '27, has been ordained deacon and is at work in the diocese of South Carolina, with his father, Archdeacon Baskervill. He is a graduate of Lincoln and of the Philadelphia Divinity School.

Dr. William Pickens, an official of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, and a famous lecturer, addressed the Assembly on November 23d. Other Assembly speakers have been, Rev. W. Randolph Johnson, Education Week and Armistice Day program; Miss Lucille Zimmerman, description of a Caribbean Cruise; Rev. George A. Fisher, "Why the Negro Should Vote"; Prof. Arthur A. Allen, "Bird Life and Its Preservation", and Miss Wilhelmina Roberts and Frank Perry, a report of the Kings Mountain Student Conference. Mr. Johnson is Adviser on Negro Affairs in the North Carolina Department of Public Welfare. Miss Zimmerman is a member of the staff of St. Agnes Hospital, and the Rev. Mr. Fisher is rector of St. Ambrose Church, Raleigh. Dr. Allen is professor of Ornithology in Cornell University. Miss Roberts and Mr. Perry are students at St. Augustine's.