

BREAK COMING

Everyone looks forward to exam time with anxious eyes, but after that comes a chance to relax for a few days.

Mid-semester break comes at the wrong time for those who want to go to the seaside or to the mountains, yet some Wesleyan students are planning trips to different places of interest.

Donna Ramey, Patsy Warren, and Henry Sanders are going to spend a few days visiting George Marshall in Fall Church, Virginia.

John Alden is going to Bethel with Jerry Chesson. Later they may go to Norfolk, Virginia, to join Ervin Cullipher and then go to Washington, D.C.

In Washington they may run into Jane Smith and Margaret Walters who are planning to spend the vacation there with Margaret's two sisters.

Wanda Exum is planning to go to Carolyn Moore's home in Norfolk, Virginia.

Reggie Wester won't return to Wesleyan. He is getting married January 29.

Joan Lamberth, Betty Anderson, Larry Matthews, Vann Massey, and Miss Lois Collins, Director of Admissions, represented Wesleyan College on television station WINT, January 14.

On the program, Hospitality House, the group discussed the student government, publications, social life, sports and Music Department of the college.

NEWS IN BRIEF
