

FACULTY RECITAL NEW STUDENTS

The first faculty recital was presented at Wesleyan College on February 28 when Dr. William Sasser, head of the Music Department at Wesleyan, presented a piano concert in the Chapel.

His program for the Concert Series included selections from Bach, Schubert, Schumann, Chopin, Kabalevsky, Turina, and Debussy.

In another of this series of concerts sponsored by the Music Department of Wesleyan College and the Rocky Mount Arts Center, Mrs. Nancy Nelson, from the Music Department of the University at Chapel Hill, presented a piano concert on February 14.

DEAN'S LIST

Students at North Carolina Wesleyan hurdled one of the biggest obstacles of their educational career during the last week in January when mid-term examinations were held. A report from Dean Moore's office shows that a good percentage of the regular student body has earned the title "student-in-good-standing".

Specifically, the break-down in grades shows that 8% of the marks were A's; 27% were B's; 36% were C's; 19% were D's, and 10% were F's. Six students made the Dean's list. They were Betty Anderson, Susan Black, Gayle Felton, Gary Garlow, Marshall Pridgen and Louis Womble.

Between semesters the student body of Wesleyan College added four new students, giving a total enrollment for the second semester of eighty-three students.

The new students are Thomas White, John Eilers, Billy Herbert, and Carrol Spencer. Thomas White commutes from Elm City and plans to major in foreign languages. John Eilers from Rocky Mount was born in Hamburg, Germany, and served in the United States Air Force. Billy Herbert from Rocky Mount is married and has three children. He operated his own business until he was called into the ministry. Carrol Spencer, also from Rocky Mount, is a senior at Atlantic Christian College in Wilson. He is taking the religion course at Wesleyan.

ROLLING ALONG

The Social Committee has put on wheels and started rolling, roller skating that is. February 23, there was a Skating Party at Sky-Vue Skateland and another will be held Wednesday, March 8, from 7:30 to 10:00 p.m. Admission will be $1.00 which includes the price of the skates. Tickets will be sold by members of the Social Committee Friday and Monday at noon.

There are also tentative plans for a hay ride either March 10 or 11. The Spring Formal for the class is scheduled for April 15; any suggestions for themes will be welcomed by the Committee.
