

REGISTRATION DAY . . . and the lines get longer and longer.

RECEPTION—President and Mrs. Collins talk with faculty members during President's reception.

CONVOCATION—Faculty members line up before procession of Opening Workshop Convocation.

Orientation

On Friday, September 13, a hectic array of freshmen began meeting with their advisers and registration was under way.

Indoor and outdoor activities were planned by the Orientation Committee, one such activity being a tour of the City of Rocky Mount.

On Friday evening the new students were honored at a reception given by Dr. and Mrs. Collins in their home.

Saturday evening, an Embers Dance was held in the Student Union Building, sponsored by the Student Government Association.

As a climax to Orientation Service was held in the Student Union auditorium. Dr. J. E. Garlington of The First Methodist Church of Clinton was the speaker.

Following the Convocation, a reception was held in the Student Union lounge for the faculty and students.

We would like to make your acquaintance, too!

We hope you don't consider us a bunch of old fossils sitting on top of a pile of money bags. Actually, you'll find us much like the people back home, friendly as the folks next door and anxious to be helpful whenever possible.

One service we highly recommend is a Student Checking Account that makes it easier for you to hold on to your money. Stop in so we can make your acquaintance and give you the details.
