

Teachers To Be Taught?

By LIBBY WALLACE

Spring Sports Practice Begins

All candidates for baseball, tennis, and golf reported to Coach Bauer and Coach Scaif Feb. 26 for a physical conditioning program to start off the spring sports program.

Wesleyan will participate in Intercollegiate baseball, tennis, and golf, competing against various other colleges.

16 Baseball Games

The baseball team will play 16 games, including two doubleheaders. Among the teams the Bishops play will be West Georgia College and Kent State College.

The baseball team will not play in the Dixie Conference since there were not enough colleges to establish teams to meet the requirements of the Conference.

The tennis team will play in matches and also participate in the Dixie Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament to be held here at Wesleyan.

The golf team will have 10 matches and also participate in the Dixie Intercollegiate Conference Tournament, also to be played here at Wesleyan.

It's 8:30 in the morning and time for Wesleyan's student teachers to nervously meet 30 or more smirking high school students. With notes, books and tranquilizers in hand, the new teachers approach the front of their classrooms and remain standing until the students have completely stereotyped them.

Being in complete charge of the classroom, they now know the feeling of a shoe worn on the other foot—revenge is most apt to set in as the student teachers are allowed to quiz their victims.

Great assistance has been given our precocious student teachers by the Education Department. They now know how to keep their chalk from squeaking, but have no idea how to stop their knees from shaking. They have been taught how to speak distinctly and with no accent but do not know the slightest remedy for a dry swollen tongue.

Actually we've always been told experience is the best teacher. If this is so, our teachers are being taught well.

YDC Delegates Attend Meeting

College Young Democrats from throughout North Carolina gathered in Raleigh, Friday and Saturday, Feb. 21 and 22, at the Hotel Sir Walter for a Winter Rally of their federation. Over 100 college YDC's were on hand.

Featured speakers included: National Young Democratic President, J. Albert House, Jr. of Roanoke Rapids who is the first North Carolina ever to head the national organization; Assistant Postmaster General Richard Murphy, a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and a former president of the National Student Association; State YDC President Thomas O. Gilmore, who at 27 is the youngest person ever to head the Tarheel organization; and members of the Council of State along with other party officials.

A special feature of the program included the appearance of Tarheel gubernatorial candidates Beverly Lake, Dan K. Moore, and Richardson Preyer on Saturday morning. Each addressed the gathering and answered questions.

Also to be considered at the rally were several resolutions pertaining to the Civil Rights Bill now before the Congress and a plan to realign votes within the structure of the Federation.

The rally concluded at noon Saturday following a luncheon. It began at 7:30 p. m. Friday with registration opening at 5 p. m. College students from every college in the state were invited to attend.

Wesleyan College sent a delegation of eight members.

Hootenany '64' To Be Presented March 21

March 24 will be the date of Wesleyan's next big Hootenany. Sponsored by the Social Commission, Hootenany '64 will feature "The Huntsmen," "The Migrants," "The Plainsmen," Miss Gerry Matthews and Mike Williams.

All of this will take place between the hours of 8 p. m. and 10:30 p. m. in the Rocky Mount Senior-High Auditorium.

Tickets went on sale yesterday in the college bookstore. Price

Walker, Susie Black, Mrs. Gayle Felton, and Mrs. Louise Peele. Those not in the picture are Mrs. Barbara Edwards, Mrs. Carol Brinkley and Dennis Stockdale.

Dr. Buttrick Visits Here

Dr. George A. Buttrick, one of the country's most distinguished preachers, lecturers, and writers appeared on the campus of North Carolina Wesleyan College March 2 and 3.

Dr. Buttrick addressed the entire student body at convocation as well as presented a public lecture, "The Nature of Truth."

He was born at Seaham Harbour, England, and was educated at Leeds Central High School at Victoria University in Manchester, from which he was graduated with honors in philosophy, and at Lancashire Independent Seminary. He holds Doctor of Divinity degrees from Hamilton and Middlebury Colleges, and from Yale, Miami, Princeton and Harvard Universities, a Litt. D. from Albright College, LL.D from Bethany College, and a D. S. T. from Columbia University.

All of Dr. Buttrick's ministry has been in America, in the following pastorates: First Union Congregational Church, Quincy, Illinois; First Congregational Church, Buffalo, New York, and at Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church in New York City, where he was pastor from 1927-54.

In January, 1955, he became Preacher to the University and Plummer Professor of Christian Morals at Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts. He resigned this appointment in June, 1960, to accept the Harry Emerson Fosdick Professorship for 1960-61 at Union Theological Seminary in New York City. He is now Professor of Preaching at Garrett Theological Seminary, Northwestern University, and serves what he terms "the wilder church" by preaching and lecturing.

The Danforth Visiting Lecturers project, under which Dr. Buttrick came, is now in its seventh year. It is sponsored jointly by the Danforth Foundation and the Association of American Colleges. The purpose of the program is to "strengthen the intellectual, the religious and the cultural aspects of liberal education in the United States."

Dr. Buttrick is one of 16 outstanding scholars and specialists from this country and abroad selected by the Foundation and the Association's Art Program for campus visits during the 1963-64 academic year.

The tour planned for Dr. Buttrick will take him to the campuses of five college and universities in the Southeast. He visited seven campuses under the same auspices in 1962, and nine in 1963.

Psych Club Offers Second Tournament

Another bridge tournament is coming up tonight, March 4, between the hours of 7 p. m. and 10 p. m. in Garber Chapel.

Again, as the first time, both trophies and floating prizes will be awarded to the winners. Students, staff and faculty alike are welcomed to try for any or all of these prizes. The deadline for signing up to play is 12 noon today.

Persons interested can sign up with Ginny Eason, Steve Petlitz, Ronnie Ragsdale or Mary Jo Barkley. Price will be $1 for couples or 50 cents per person. Partners will be arranged for those who enter as a single.

The type of bridge played is progressive contract bridge. In scoring the procedure will be different from that of the first tournament. Whatever number of points are scored, a difference will be obtained with the difference going to the couple who had the highest score. The high score of the two couples will then progress to the next table.

Drinks will be sold during the tournament for 10 cents each.

Again, this tournament is sponsored by the Psychology Club.
