

Wesleyan Places Third In Golf And Tennis

College Of Charleston Captures Individual Titles In Tournament

By DAVID REEVES

The College of Charleston tennis team won individual titles in every event except the No. 6 singles bracket to take home the team championship in the first annual DIAC tennis tournament. The team was composed of Billy Silcox, Mark Hane, Bill Gand, Neil Draisin, Tom Holst, and Mickey Bell who couldn't be beaten as they racked up a total of 52 points.

The tournament consisted of 9 brackets; 6 singles and 3 doubles. The brackets were arranged according to ability. The No. 1 players from each school played in the No. 1 bracket. The teams were awarded 2 points for every match one of its players won.

Chaiken Gets Bye

In the No. 1 bracket Bob Chaiken from St. Andrews drew a bye in the first round. Mike Pratt from Wesleyan beat Russell Jones from Charlotte 6-0, 6-0. Billy Silcox from Charleston and Don Parsons from Methodist drew byes. In the second round Chaiken beat Pratt 6-0, 6-1 to move into the semi-final round against Billy Silcox who had defeated Parsons 6-0, 6-1. Silcox won the first set easily by 6-1 against Chaiken. He had a tough time in the second set but battled to a 6-4 victory and became champion in bracket number one. Mark Hane emerged as champion in bracket number two. In the first round Gary Barteau of Wesleyan, Mark Hane of Charleston, and John Handy of Methodist drew a bye. Vann Taylor defeated Barry Grice 6-1, 6-3. In the second round Vann Taylor of St. Andrews defeated Gary Barteau 6-2, 6-1. Mark Hane defeated John Handy 6-0, 6-1. In the final round John Hane soundly defeated Taylor to win the championship of bracket two 6-0, 6-0.

Louis Womble of Wesleyan, Bill Gand of the College of Charleston and Larry Varner of St. Andrews drew a bye in the first round in bracket number three. Jim Ludwig of Methodist was beaten 7-5, 6-3 by Jay Currin of Charlotte. Bill Gand defeated Larry Varner 6-1, 6-3 to gain the right to play in the final round. Louis Womble won the first set 6-2 but Currin battled back to take a 7-5 victory in the second set. Womble then decided the match with a smashing 6-1 victory in the final set. Bill Gand won the title defeating Womble 6-0, 6-2 in the championship round. Bracket number four was dominated by the play of Neil Draisin from Charleston. In the first round Bill Campbell of St. Andrews, Rick D'Lassandro of Methodist, and Gil Wiley of Wesleyan drew a bye. Draisin beat Art Meyer of Charlotte 6-1, 6-1, to move into the 2nd round against Campbell. Draisin defeated Campbell 6-1, 6-3 to gain the championship round. Gil Wiley soundly defeated D'Lassandro 6-0, 6-1 to play Draisin for the championship. Draisin won the first set easily 6-0. In the second set Wiley battled back but was beaten 6-4, giving the title to Draisin.

Sparky Rapeley, Tim Leonard and Truong Nguyen drew a bye in the first round in bracket five. Tom Holst of Charleston defeated Bobby Burns of Charlotte 6-2, 6-1 to move into the 2nd round against Sparky Rapeley. Holst defeated Hapeley 6-0, 6-1. Tim Leonard of St. Andrews defeated Truong Nguyen of Wesleyan 6-3, 6-3 to move into the final round against Holst for the title. Tom Holst had a rough time against Leonard but won 6-3, 8-6.

Holden Loses

In Bracket six of the singles matches Ted Sky, Mickey Bell and Dave McArthur drew a bye. Lyn Holden put up a battle but lost to Javan Reid of St. Andrews 6-4, 6-2. Ted Sky of Methodist was defeated by Reid 6-0, 6-0 in the second round. Bell defeated McArthur 6-0, 6-1 to move into the final round against Reid. Reid then took the championship by defeating Bell 6-3, 6-0 and became the only champion that was not from The College of Charleston.

The doubles matches were divided into three brackets. The number one and two players were put into bracket one. Number 3 and 4 players from each college competed in bracket two. Number 5 and 6 players competed in bracket six.

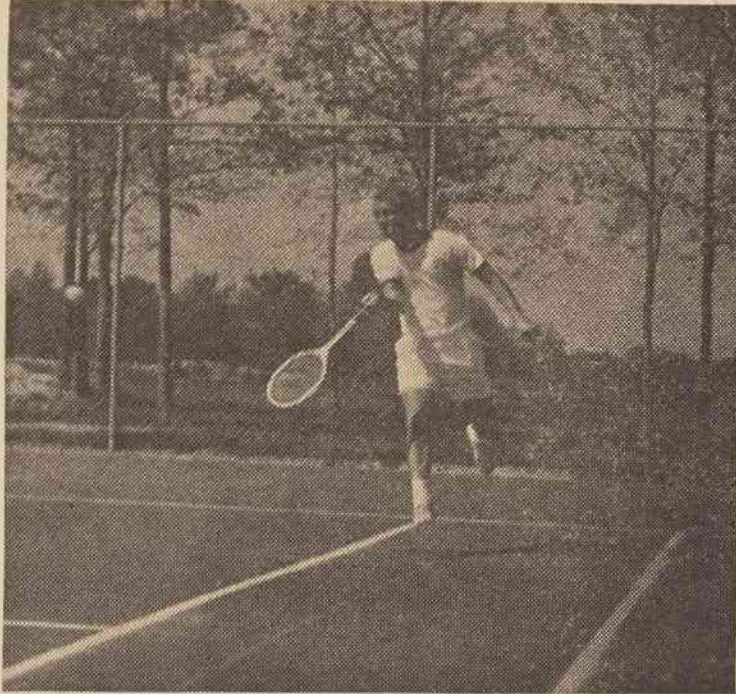

In the first round of the doubles matches in bracket one Bob Chaiken and Vann Taylor of St. Andrews defeated Don Parsons and John Handy of Methodist 6-0, 6-2 to move into the second round. Mike Pratt and Louis Womble who had drawn a bye in the first round faced Chaiken and Taylor. Chaiken and Taylor defeated Pratt and Womble 6-0, 6-2 to move into the final round. Hane and Silcox from Charleston faced Grice and Jones from Charlotte in the second round and won 6-3, 6-1. In the final round Silcox and Hane easily defeated Chaiken and Taylor 6-0, 6-3 to win the championship.

Reach 2nd Round

Larry Varner and Bill Campbell of St. Andrews defeated Jim Ludwig and Rick D'Lassandro 6-3, 6-1 to reach the second round. Varner and Campbell then defeated Currin and Meyer 6-1, 6-1 to reach the final round. Gil Wiley and Gary Barteau were defeated in the second round by Draisin and Grand 7-5, 6-1. Draisin and Grand had a tough time winning the title but managed to gain a 6-4, 6-3 victory over Varner and Campbell.

Bracket III of the doubles matches was won by Holst and Bell from the College of Charleston. They defeated Reid and Leonard 6-4, 6-2 to gain the second round matches against Sky and Rapeley. Holst and Bell emerged the victors 6-0, 6-2 to move into the final round. Bliss and Burns were defeated by Holden and Nguyen in a close battle 4-6, 6-3, 8-6 in the second round. Holst and Bell defeated Wesleyan's Holden and Nguyen for the championship 6-1, 6-2.

The final standings were as follows; first place was won by the College of Charleston that amassed a total of 52 points; they were followed by St. Andrews College with 26 points; Wesleyan College with 12 points; Charlotte College with 2 points; and Methodist College who couldn't manage a single point.

LYNN HOLDEN RETURNS SMASH IN TOURNEY

St. Andrews Gets Golf Championship

St. Andrews Presbyterian College of Laurinburg was the winner of the first annual Dixie Intercollegiate Athletic Conference golf tournament which was held April 30 and May 1.

N.C.W.C., host and favorite for the tournament, which was held on the windswept Benvenue Country Club Course, finished third behind St. Andrews and second place Lynchburg College.

St. Andrews took a commanding seven shot lead at the end of the first day. The Nights then added five shots to their lead and coasted in with an easy victory.

Medalists honors for the two-day affair went to Bill McInnis of St. Andrews. He shot a pair of 77's for a 154 total which held up in the inclement weather. Buzz Barker of Wesleyan tied Bill Goodale and Zon Law of St. Andrews for runner up medalist with a total of 156. However, the honor went to Bill Goodale in a sudden death playoff which saw Law eliminated in the 37th hole and Barker on the 38th.

Other scores and team positions for the tourney were as follows: 1st place—St. Andrews with a total score of 639; 2nd place—Lynchburg College with a total of 651; Wesleyan College with 670; Methodist College with 672; Charlotte with 687; and in 6th place — the College of Charleston with 704.

DIAC GOLF SCORES

1st Place—St. Andrews College

Player	1st day	2nd day	total
Bill McInnis	77	77	154
Lee Lawson	90	83	173
Bill Goodale	75	81	156
Zon Law	75	81	156
Team totals	317	322	639

2nd Place—Lynchburg College

Player	1st day	2nd day	total
Lewis Fore	79	79	158
Bill Johnson	82	82	164
Bill Beal	80	81	161
Dick Nelson	83	85	168
Team totals	324	327	651

3rd Place—Wesleyan College

Player	1st day	2nd day	total
Buzz Barker	78	78	156
Mike Emory	84	85	169
John Church	79	87	166
Don Midgette	92	87	179
Team totals	333	337	670

4th Place—Methodist College

Player	1st day	2nd day	total
Richard Goforth	82	81	163
Richard Evans	80	82	162
Billy Jones	84	88	172
Reese Edwards	85	90	175
Team totals	331	341	672

5th Place—Charlotte College

Player	1st day	2nd day	total
Scotty Trotter	93	89	182
Butch Connell	86	88	174
Rush Shull	85	77	162
Jimmy Helms	83	86	169
Team totals	347	340	687

6th Place—College of Charleston

Player	1st day	2nd day	total
Stewart Ratcliffe	95	91	186
Bart Sproule	96	89	185
Burke Hammes	88	82	170
John Lesemann	84	79	163
Team totals	363	341	704

Seniors May Apply Now For OCS

Washington, D. C., April 29— If you are a senior, you may apply for a commission as a Reserve Officer with the U. S. Coast Guard. The next Officer Candidate School class starts September 13, 1964.

The Officer Candidate School is a 17-week training program conducted at Yorktown, Va. The curriculum covers courses in navigation, seamanship, communications, ordnance and gunnery, damage control, anti-submarine warfare, military justice and Coast Guard operations.

Since the Coast Guard has only about 3,000 officers on active duty each officer is an important member of the team. It also means that you may have a chance to assume command responsibility early in your career.

College seniors desiring to obtain additional information regarding Coast Guard Officer Candidate School programs should contact the Commandant, U. S. Coast Guard, 1300 "E" St., N. W., Washington, D. C. 20226.

YDC Elects New Officers

(Continued from page 3)

strongly urges the support of the entire student body for this worthwhile project. There will go on sale here in the near future, Kennedy half dollar pieces that will sell for one dollar. The extra money from this sale will go directly to the fund.

Also two tickets for the big John F. Kennedy Memorial Library Fund Rally to be held in Raleigh will be raffled off. The guest speaker at the rally will be the renown Dr. Billy Graham.

The spring rally of the YDC will be held Friday and Saturday, May 8th and 9th, in Salisbury, North Carolina. The convention itself will take place at the Holiday Inn Motel.

Exam Schedule

Examination Time And Date

Monday, May 25, 1964
9:00-11:00	MWF	1:00 classes
1:00-3:00	MWF	2:00 classes
Tuesday, May 26, 1964
9:00-11:00	TTHS	8:30 classes
1:00-3:00	MWF	10:00 classes
Wednesday, May 27, 1964
9:00-11:00	MWF	8:30 classes
1:00-3:00	MWF	11:30 classes
Thursday, May 28, 1964
9:00-11:00	MWF	9:30 classes
1:00-3:00	TTHS	1:00 classes
Friday, May 29, 1964
9:00-11:00	TTHS	9:30 classes
1:00-3:00	TTHS	11:30 classes
Saturday, May 30, 1964
9:00-11:00	MWF
	& TTHS	3:00 classes

W. C. Reid & Co.

Eastern Carolina's
Leading Music Store

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C.

Bank at the . . . Bank Of Rocky Mount

"Your Friendly Bank . . .
. . . With You In Mind"
Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation