First Annual Concert Is Set This Evening

The Wesleyan Singers, under the direction of Dr. William Sasser, and the Wesleyan Symphonic Wind Ensemble, under the direction of Dr. Peter Gerschetski, will join forces to present their first annual Commencement Concert on Tuesday evening, May 19, at 8:15 p. m. in the Student Union on the campus of North Carolina Wesleyan College in Rocky Mount. The public is cordially invited to attend this event which is free of charge.

The Wesleyan Singers, composed of 53 voices, will present a performance of Gustav Holst's "Festival Te Deum" as their major work of the evening. In addition, they will sing two Russian church anthems, "Salvation Is Created" by Tschernokoff and "Blessings of Peace" by Arkangelsky.

The wind ensemble will perform Gustav Holst's Second Suite for Military Band, Op. 28b.

The entire second half of the program will be devoted to a performance of Randall Thompson's "The Testament of Freedom" for men's voices and band. This work was written in 1943 in honor of the 200th anniversary of the birth of Thomas Jefferson and is a setting of Jeffersonian texts from several historical documents. It was first performed at the University of Virginia on April 13, 1943, and has since received performances throughout the world, becoming one of the most widely performed choral compositions of the 20th century. The accompaniment, originally for symphony orchestra, has recently been arranged by Dr. Thompson for wind band, and it is this version which will be performed.
