Pi Epsilon Plans Child Care Center On Campus Here

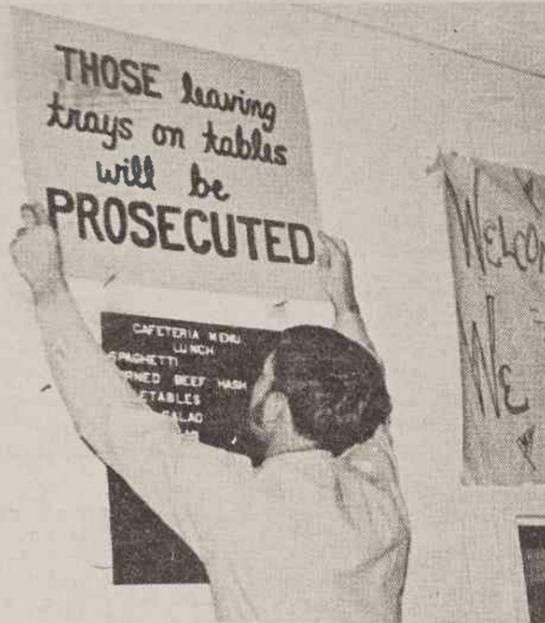

By MARSHAL OLD

Jeanie Farish, President of the Sisterhood of Pi Epsilon, announced recently that the Sorority is seeking to establish a child care center on the Wesleyan campus. It is hoped that the day child-care center would operate once a week from 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. Members of the faculty, staff and employees of Wesleyan and married students will be invited to use this new facility.

Many students and staff members have been contacted about the potential child care center, and many have expressed interest in the project. At this stage of the planning, Mrs. Matthews of the Education Division is helping to plan the educational program. Assistant Dean Sarah Alexander is now working on the administrative phase of the work. A few problems still remain according to Jeanie. One major problem is liability insurance and the sorority's responsibility for the safety of the children. Mr. Sawyer is currently trying to solve this problem. Also, the college dietitian Mrs. Mozelle Batchelor is handling details for a noon meal for the children.

The Sisterhood hopes to open the center in early November.

Ken Cater places the Senate imposed warning to students leaving their trays on the table in the cafeteria.

NCW Senate Discusses Complaint

By TOM HARDISON

Student Cafeteria workers, angered at the increasing number of trays left on tables after meals recently, this week attempted to gain the support of the Student Senate to solve the problem.

Dennis Hayek, Wyatt Sasser, and Marshall Old, student cafeteria workers met with the Senate last week to try to resolve the problem. The three student workers related to the Senate that trays being left make more work for the students employed in the cafeteria and that they had resolved that beginning at the time of the meeting Monday, October 12, student workers would cease to remove trays.

The Senate discussed steps to solve the problem, and called a meeting of influential student leaders in an attempt to alleviate the problem. At the same time the student workers were persuaded by the Senate to continue as normal until today, at which time trays left by students will not be removed.

Posters have been put up in the cafeteria warning students of the consequences of leaving trays and fines are to be levied beginning today for those guilty of the offense.

It was reported that many of the leaders asked to the Senate gathering were indignant, since it was assumed that their groups were being accused of making the problem, but a cafeteria spokesman assured the DECREE that this was not the case but was, in fact, a suggested way to reach the majority of students since these officials had contact with students.

Marryin' Sim, Daisy Mae Highlight Coming Weekend

By J. ALLEN WINTER

Have ya'll ever sat down for a spell then flung like wild and hupped and hollered? Well buckle right down, squat forward and give an ear cause time's a coming for your revoloooshunizing.

Daisy Mae's a coming, she's a comin' at last. Naw ya ain't gonna put your pee pickin' eye balls on that gal til the hoedown October 24-that's Saturday. Ya know, the junior class believes that the all Greek powder puff football game at eleven, followed by a brief break for lunch and the big contests between gal and guy at 12:30 'til 2:00 will put your pea pickin' heart high in the sky. Jerry Brown says the young ladies will try to defeat their fancies in these contests. Mary Johnson, who is also representing the contests, says there ain't no way for the gals to lose. As an innocent bystander I say the guys can't lose!

At 2:00 all squelcherin hopes will fly as Wesleyan's soccer team hustles like hail to beat Campbell--an' they will--cause you'll be there. The record our team has may not show it but they are winners in the hearts of Wesleyan. If you haven't seen a game--see this one and you'll know why.

Now for one of those brief breaks til' dinner and the PIT. Yeah that's right--the Pit. You bring your hanger, yep-hanger and we'll bring the weiner's. Roast and cat your heart's delight at the Pit by the Power Plant from 5-6:15 then take a brief break and put on your duds for the HOEDOWN.

A few minutes to 8 the young gals will pick up their assorted dates at the appropriate male dorms.

Gals, Please honk--do not enter.

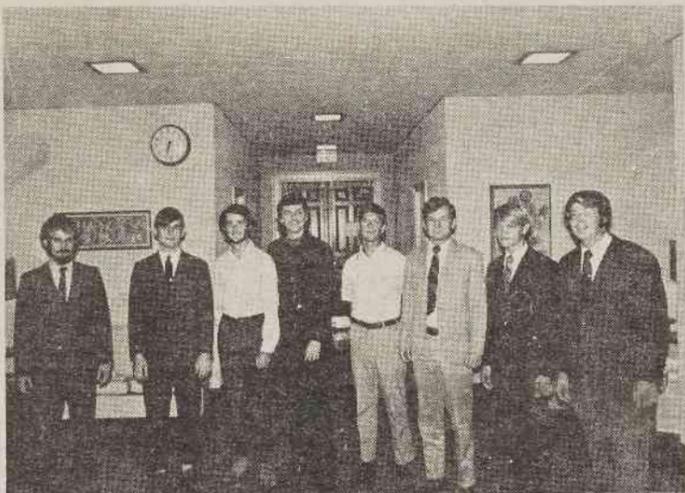

Saunter on around to the Hoedown to hear the "Abbrevs" just a pluckin' from 8 til 12 til' your heart's content. And if your heart does get carried away just shuffle right on over to Marryin' Sim who'll bind your love forever. Now opposing tall, trim and slim Sim will be Dasterdly Devorcin' Dan who will cure your ragin' Dan who will providin' the Shack of Relief. That is, if you can wait to get there.

I am commin' to the end yet I have one more word for you. Daisy Mae is a comin' and it's up to you. Here's the selection, you make the choice:

Gail Mabe representin' the Decree, Diane Williams representin' Alpha Phi Omega, Lynda Land for Wesleyan Singers, Ann Lauchner for Wesleyan Players, Betty Moore Thorpe for the Compass Club, Sandy Snyder for the Sophomore Class, Bill Racek for Nu Gamma Phi and Cindy Rotty for the Cheerleaders.

Activists Induct 8 New Members

The Wesleyan Activists, the All-male campus honor society, recently inducted eight new members from the junior and senior classes. Each member must qualify himself by placing in the upper 35% of his class and by activity in two of the other campus organizations. Primarily, the Activities must involve theater, religion, publications, student government, or athletics. The individuals chosen were Roland Shaw, Marshall Old, Gary Christopher, Sean Moran, Richard Shannonhouse, Bruce Wright, Dennis Hayek, and Bob Leyda.

The Activists are currently trying to be accepted into the brotherhood of Omricon Delta Kappa, a national male honor fraternity. An application for a charter will soon be placed and the decision may be known by the end of the current semester. If accepted, the Wesleyan chapter will be the third in North Carolina following Davidson College and Duke University.
