Speed And Strength Surprising!!!

NCWC Runs Away With Track

The North Carolina Wesleyan Track Team, coached by Al Horne and assisted by Ben Gregory, proved to be a big surprise last week when they demolished Greensboro College and almost upset St. Andrews.

The Bishops, making their track debut, took nine of the possible 17 first places. The Bishops lost the match to Saint Andrews in fourth places where they were simply outmaned. As for Greensboro there was just no hope. Wesleyan out did them in every possible way.

The Bishops now stand 1-1 in conference play. They will host Greensboro College and Methodist College at Northern Nash High School on date to be announced later.

Alpha Delta Chi Wins Over Phi

Alpha Delta Chi ran away with an easy 5-1 victory over intra-campus rival Nu Gamma Phi in the first annual Soccer match between the two fraternities.

The Chi's avenged two losses in basketball earlier this year. The first quarter of action proved to be very physical with a lot of mistakes. It took the full 18 minutes of the quarter for both teams to settle down. The second quarter Chi exploded for 3 straight points. Martin Saunders booted the first one in and was soon followed by Charlie Read. It was then that Martin turned in his second point to make the score 3-0. Ron Drumheller made the assists on the last two shots.

The third quarter was full action as penalties began to mount on both sides. One of these resulted in a goal. An indirect free kick was given to the Chi's just outside the penalty area. Ed Rand took the shot and booted it directly into the goal through the protective wall. This was also the quarter that Phi made their only goal. Burke Suter burnt the ball in from about 20 yards out and made a perfect shot off of the goal post. The quarter ended with the score 4-1 ADX.

The final quarter went slowly with the "Green and Gold" scoring one more goal by Charlie Read.

a sense of humor. Doragene Gurganus, as Jeanie, is pregnant and in love with Claude. Crissy and Dionne, Paul, Steve and Suzannah will be portrayed by Bobbi Russo and Lisa Cox, Doug Elder, Carl Harris, and Shirley Hildebrand, respectively.

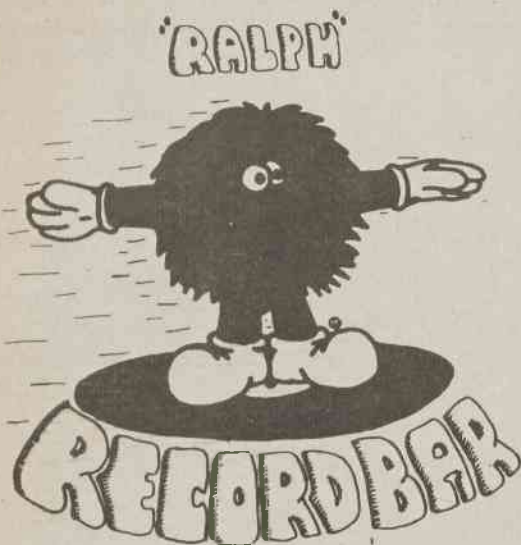

The characters represent the revolutionary era of pro-love, pro-drugs, pro-sex, and anti-establishment tribe who, in the course of the action, attend be-ins, scare "tourists," protest at induction centers, recreate a war of two, smoke pot, take off their clothes, sing in the streets, make love and otherwise amuse themselves.

The musical's lyrics reflect the curiosity, the put-on humor, naivete, honesty, and impetuosity of today's most interesting and intellectually restless youngsters -- Something that can definitely be found at Wesleyan.

Production dates are to be announced. Tickets may be purchased by paying tuition to N.C. Wesleyan College, Hocky Rock, N.C.
