

Vice-Chairman Selected Here

NEWS BUREAU—Judge J. Phil Carlton of Pinetops was elected as vice-chairman of the N. C. Wesleyan College Board of Trustees at the semi-annual meeting in October. The announcement was made by Dr. Thomas A. Collins, Wesleyan president, who stated that Guy E. Barnes of Rocky Mount also will continue to serve as a vice-chairman.

Board Chairman Thomas J. Pearsall praised Judge Carlton's election, stating that the college is fortunate to have such a capable young man in the office of vice-chairman. Pearsall was elected board chairman in June 1969, succeeding Luther W. Hill of Tarboro, who had served as Wesleyan's board chairman since October 1956. Judge Carlton has served as a Wesleyan board member since his election in June 1969.

J. Phil Carlton is chief district court judge of the Seventh Judicial District of North Carolina, which includes Nash, Wilson and Edgecombe counties. He was elected district judge in the general election of 1968 and was later

Tuition Discount!!

NEWS BUREAU—The N. C. Wesleyan College Board of Trustees has approved an automatic $300 tuition discount, to become effective Sept. 1, 1974, for every Nash-Edgecombe student who attends Wesleyan full time.

The announcement was made by Wesleyan President Thomas A. Collins, who stated that this significant trustee action was taken at the semi-annual meeting on Oct. 25. "Wesleyan's trustees approved the tuition discount specifically in appreciation for the work of the Rocky Mount Area Wesleyan College Foundation and donors to the college. They also expressed a collective wish to stimulate interest in Wesleyan among the area high school students."

This discount will be available to every Nash-Edgecombe student who meets certain criteria. Among these criteria are: the student must officially enroll at Wesleyan as a full time student, be a legal resident of either county, or a graduate of a secondary school located in either of these counties.
