

There's another underground club on campus . . . and one that sounds a lot like the Sooner Club, except for one rather obvious difference. The Protractor Club has recently surfaced—and the membership is all girls. The Protractors (pronounced PROtractors) came to the surface the other day in the Decree office as a couple of the members blew the cover off the Club. They (Donna Noell, Debbie Pearce, Cindy Wax, Peggy Verkler and Carol DiBlasi, alumni) would have you all believe that the club dates before the granddaddy of all Wesleyan outlaw clubs, the Sooners, but I doubt it, sort of. The girls say they got started a year or so ago when some girl was baking cookies for the Compass Club. In she came, enthralled with her baking ability. "What are you girls up to?" she asked. "I'm baking cookies for the Compass Club." "Oh yeh?" quipped DiBlasi, "Well, we're makin' Dacquiris for the PROtractors Club." And, just like the now classic "We'd sooner be anywhere than Wesleyan", a club was born.

DiBlasi has to be credited with being the Founding Mother and Noell and Verkler were founding members. Pearce and Wax are the "newies", sometimes called pledges.

There seems to be at least a subconscious effort to be the female counterpart of The Sooners although when this reporter talked to a few of the girls they wouldn't admit it. When asked if they plan any parties like the Sooners they said "yes, if we get more members. But we'd get together with the Sooners to help. "I guess we are a lot like the Sooners, said one of the PROtractors," we do it all except hang moons.

"If we were guys like the Sooners we would get the hell out of Dodge, like the Sooners." They haven't taken too any road trips, except one to Raleigh and one to Greenville. The trip to Raleigh was kind of a dud because an extended cruise along the boy's dorms at State didn't turn up anything and they got carded in all the bars.

The aims of the PROtractors Club at this time are a little vague. "Whew," said Pearce, "we haven't even thought of any." They have formulated secret tap-ins, like the Sooners, and have come up with a Sweetheart. He is Harry Reems, the male star of "Deep Throat" and "The Devil and Miss Jones." They have come up with a motto ("Gotta Be Quick") and are in the process of getting a crest made. "The only thing concrete about what will be on our crest is our mascot. A goose," said one member.

Second semester, the girls promise, will be a great one for the club. "We have our eyes on a few girls we'd like to join, and, gas or no gas we are going to take road trips whenever we can. We stole a map of the Eastern United States from a Sooner not long ago and now we've got an idea of all the hot towns and hot bars we need to make it to."

The girls have had their picture taken and hope to have it inserted into the next yearbook. "We got a lot to do to catch up to the noteriety of the Sooners but we've come a long way, baby."

All I can say is good luck, PROtractors, and I hope you take a little pressure off the Sooners. Maybe this is the start of the countries first frarority. I wonder if the Sooners and the PROtractors could ever get it together?

Dear Chief . . .

The dance was a complete success. I appreciated the help of everyone who helped Mac and me to set up the Shrine Club. We were all ready when 9:00 came. Mac did a great job in his choice of the band, The Royal Kings. Thanks, partner. I haven't heard a dissenting comment about the dance yet and that's a definite "plus" for the Social Commission.

There are so many more people to thank—Mrs. Harrison, for supplying all of the refreshments; Mrs. Batchelor, for lending trays from the cafeteria; Mrs. Hagins and Mrs. Alexander for helping us at the door; Gerry Webb at the Flower & Gift Bazaar, for donating the flowers for the Queen; and of course everyone who attended the dance. I know that this is one Homecoming that I won't forget for a long time.

Sincerely,
Cindy Wax

donars on a dollar for dollar basis. Each alumnus who increases his donation from his previous gift will have his increase matched by Pearsall.

All Wesleyan alumni have been notified of the Pearsall Challenge. In making his offer to the young alumni body, Pearsall stated, "I trust this will stimulate a great deal of interest and make our alumni more aware of the on-going development of their college. I have every faith that this year the Alumni Fund will exceed all former years."

There's a special rate most airlines don't advertise.

It's the I'm-sorry-sir-but-all-the-seats-are-taken-rate.

If you're denied a seat on a flight for which you hold a confirmed reservation, and the airline can't get you on another flight scheduled to arrive within two hours of your originally scheduled arrival, you're entitled to immediate compensation.

The airline must give you your money back and an amount equal to the value of the first flight coupon on your ticket, providing the coupon cost a minimum of $25 and a maximum of $200. In many cases that means double your money back.

Deliberate overbooking is a deceptive practice used to insure a completely booked flight. If an airline does it to you ask for immediate compensation. If they refuse ask for a written explanation. And send it to the Civil Aeronautics Board in Washington, D.C.

Remember that, next time you have a hard time getting off the ground.
